AIR LINER, 5 ABOARD, IS MISSING IN ROCKIES

Snowstorm Stops Search for Western Express
Which Was Due at Albuquerque, N. M. Yesterday

TWO PASSENGERS AND CREW OF THREE

Pilot Who Found Wreck of the T. A. T. City of San Francisco Will Direct
Hunt in Same Area,

By the Associated Press.
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 29.—A blinding snowstorm today stalled aerial search for the Western Air Express passenger plane missing since yesterday morning in the mountainous New Mexico-Arizona border country with five persons aboard.

George Rice, Western Air Express pilot, who located the Transcontinental Air Transport liner, City of San Francisco, which crashed on Mount Taylor early in September with the loss of eight lives, returned late this morning in a snowstorm after flying as far west as Gallup, N. M., without sighting the missing plane.

The heavy snow and poor visibility forced Rice back. Western Air officials said he would not be sent again until the storm abated.

Officers of the company held hope of any successful air hunt today on account of the storm and the failure of planes from other sections to reach here due to bad weather.

A searching plane, sent out this morning by the Albuquerque Journal, reached Grants, N. M., and the hunt for the monoplane City of San Francisco last month, but was on the ground there by the storm.

Regular Service Held Up.
The regular Western Air Express round trip from Los Angeles to Kansas City, arrived at Holbrook, Ariz., and was ordered held over until weather conditions improved.

Both the forestry department and lumber companies are putting searchers in the field in the vicinity of Mount Sedgewick, a mountain as dangerous as Mount Taylor.

The air liner, with two passengers and a crew of three, disappeared yesterday morning somewhere along the 180-mile stretch of the route between Navajo, Ariz., and Albuquerque. It is thought to have been forced down by bitter weather over the Rocky Mountains yesterday, bringing snow and rain which caused Western Air Express to order all planes grounded. The order came too late to halt the searching plane at Kingman, Ariz., which left at 8:24 a.m. mountain time.

Due to blizzard conditions, the ship was last sighted over Navajo at 10:30 a.m. At Pinon, Ariz., a few miles east and eight-foot drifts, a Santa Fe Railroad inspector said he heard a plane in the clouds at 11 a.m., but could see it not.

The plane was bound from Alhambra, a suburb of Los Angeles, to Kansas City, Mo.

Those aboard were:
Dr. A. W. Ward, San Francisco, nationally known dental authority, going to Fort Worth, Tex., to fill speaking engagement.

W. H. Merle, Mount Vernon, N. Y., on his way home.
James E. Doles, Los Angeles, pilot.
Allan C. Barrie, Burbank, Calif., pilot.

L. Britton, Los Angeles, formerly of Denver, steward.

Officers of the company expressed hope that Doles had been able to fly over the Navajo Indian reservation, east of the point where he was last seen, before being forced to land. On the eastern side of Arizona-New Mexico boundary, they said, they thought Doles would find numerous emergency landing places.

Doles hopes that the plane was on one isolated plateau where some of the pilots or the steward making his way to a place where he could identify headquarters, every place is planned to search the rough territory thoroughly.

COLLEGE PAPER AD LOOKS VERY MUCH LIKE BOOTLEGGER'S

Harvard Authorities Know of Nothing to Do About Cryptic Announcement.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 29.—A stir has been created by an advertisement that appeared in a college magazine sold at the Dartmouth football game Saturday.

Heeding the advertisement were the words "Just Because They Have Fogs in London," and then appeared the following question:

"When an examination is over, do you feel at a loss? While the waiter is speaking to others in French, do you go in a corner and hang your head? Or do you mix freely with your fellow man (homo sapiens), and if so, what do you mix freely with him?" At the bottom of the advertisement was a name and a telephone number.

Matthew Luce, regent of Harvard University, said he had no idea what action would be taken in the matter by college authorities.

LADY ASTOR BEATS MAN TO SEAT IN PARLIAMENT

Arrives at Choice Bench Few Seconds Before Business as Usual Opens.

London, Oct. 29.—With unemployment the chief issue facing the second Labor Government of England, Parliament resumed its session this morning.

The rush for choice seats in the House of Commons began very early. Some members arrived at 6 a.m., and when the doors opened at 8 o'clock there was a rush and a scramble for the best places.

Lady Astor, who stood at the doors an hour before they were opened, beat out Sir Frederick Hall in a race for the third-corner seat above the gangway, reaching the bar a few seconds before the Baronet.

J. H. Thomas, Lord Privy Seal and Minister of Employment, said he would make a comprehensive statement on unemployment in England next week. William Graham, president of the Board of Trade, told the House he hoped to make a statement on the hours of the coal miners on Thursday.

The Government is expected to mark time until the return of Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, whose place as leader of the party has been temporarily taken by Chancellor of the Exchequer Philip Snowden.

13 LOST WHEN LAKE SHIP SINKS; 68 ARE RESCUED

Captain Goes Down With Steamer Wisconsin in Storm Off Kenosha—
Eight of Dead Identified.

ENGINEER FIGHTS OFF RESCUERS

Twenty Men Taken From
Two Life Rafts—Some of Survivors Seriously Ill
From Exposure.

By the Associated Press.

KENOSHA, Wis., Oct. 29.—Thirteen men went down with the lake steamer Wisconsin, 45-year-old veteran of the Great Lakes, in a storm off Kenosha early today.

More than 60 were saved, many of them maddened and some seriously ill from exposure in the wind-whipped sea. The three passengers who were rescued

Cap. Donald Morris remained aboard his ship to the last and went down with many of his shipmates. His body was picked up later by Coast Guard crews.

Chief Engineer Judas Buschmann, Manitowoc, Wis., clung to a life raft as the steamer up-ended, rolled over and sank. Rescuers tried to haul him from the water but he fought them off and died.

Although seriously ill with a nervous breakdown for the last month, death came unexpectedly at 5:50 a.m. after a heart attack. His wife was at his bedside when he died.

He suffered a slight paralytic stroke last April and immediately after went to a sanitarium at Atlanta, Ga., for a rest. He returned to his home a month ago, but soon suffered from a nervous breakdown and entered the sanitarium here.

He was pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in New York, but by his aggressive campaigns against modernism, and especially evolution, he gained nation-wide prominence.

Dr. Stratton is survived by his widow, Mrs. Georgia Hillier Stratton, and four sons, the Rev. Hillier H. John Charles, Warren H. and George Douglas.

His Record a Pupil Once of Constantine.

Dr. Stratton was a militant fundamentalist and in recent years had clashed repeatedly with proponents of modernistic tendencies. He especially was opposed to the theory of evolution and lent his support to the late William Jennings Bryan at the famous Scopes trial at Dayton, Tenn., in 1925.

His campaigns against alleged encroachment on the stage date back to 1922 when he engaged in a debate with William A. Brady, Broadway theatrical producer, on a resolution that the modern stage was a menace to public morale. He opposed the study of Darwinian teachings in public schools and denounced Ku Klux Klan documents.

The ship left Chicago at 7:45 o'clock last night, bound for Milwaukee, with a cargo of general merchandise. It was due in Milwaukee at 5 a.m. today. Lake Michigan was kicking high rollers from the east as the Wisconsin put out.

The Wisconsin began taking water a few hours out. At 1 a.m. her wireless reported the going very rough, but that the steamer was moving slowly north.

Half an hour later the Wisconsin wireless that water was forcing the coal into the bilge pumps, but that the steamer was making some progress. The steamer Illinois at that time had gone into the harbor at Racine with a broken rudder chain. She radioed the Wisconsin for help, but did not attempt to make the regular scheduled stop at Racine because the harbor there was choked with coal boats and craft seeking shelter.

At 3 a.m. the Wisconsin sent out an SOS and said it was sinking at 4:30 a.m. The inquiry came from the steamer—that it was being abandoned with coast guards taking the Wisconsin's passengers and crew aboard their craft.

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 29.—Department officials announced today they had found $47,000 buried in a chicken coop in southeast Washington by Lieut. Charles Musil, who disappeared from Charlessburg, Pa., several weeks ago with a $4,600 payroll.

Musil was taken into custody this morning and was questioned about the disappearance of the money.

Musil told naval officials he had buried the money in the chicken coop behind a vacant house once occupied by him and his family.

CLIFTON SPRINGS, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The Rev. Dr. John Roach Stratton, noted militant fundamentalist Baptist preacher, died at a sanitarium here today. He was 54 years old.

Although seriously ill with a nervous breakdown for the last month, death came unexpectedly at 5:50 a.m. after a heart attack.

CHINESE ATTACK ON JAPANESE AT PACIFIC MEETING

—Blame Tokio for Slaying of Marshal Chang.

JAPANESE RESENT EXCLUSION BY U. S.

Statement From Viscount Shibusawa Declares "Wound Needlessly Inflicted Is Still Open."

By the Associated Press.

KYOTO, Japan, Oct. 29.—Two discordant notes marked the opening yesterday of the Pacific Relations Conference, with Chinese attacks against Japan and a reminder of Japan's resentment over the exclusion of Japanese immigrants by the United States.

After the formal greetings had been finished, the first evening session was devoted to outlines of the history of the two nations by the different delegations, and the Chinese seized the chance to attack Japanese policy under the regime of the late Baron Tanaka.

M. Yui, chairman of the Chinese delegation, alleged that the Nationalist advance on Peking in 1927 had been thwarted "not by Communists but by Japanese troops."

He added that "Chinese civilians were maltreated and many were killed by Japanese soldiers during the Japanese occupation" after the Tsingtao incident in 1928. He accused the Japanese of having killed Marshal Chang Tso-lin. Manchurian war lord, because "reports by technical experts showed it to be impossible that any Chinese group could have carried out such an undertaking."

A statement read on behalf of Viscount Shibusawa of Japan declared that "the controversy, arising from American immigration legislation in 1924 is not closed. The wound so needlessly inflicted on our national honor is still open and will remain open until the matter has been rightly settled."

"I think it necessary to make this plain statement because there seems to be an impression in America that the incident is as good as forgotten," said Yui. "This erroneous impression is doubtless due to our courtesy and reticence on this subject in conversing with American visitors."

Viscount Shibusawa is one of the leading business men of Japan and is President of the League of Nations Association of Japan.

BROOKHART PREDICTS STOCK CRASH WILL RUIN BANKS

Iowa Senator Says Much Money for Brokers Comes From Depositors Over U. S.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Senator Brookhart (Rep.), Iowa, predicted today that if the decline of securities in the street continued, "stocks all over the country" would go into bankruptcy.

The Iowan, who has bills pending proposing radical revision of the Federal Reserve law and prohibition of loans by banks for speculative purposes, said a large amount of money advanced to brokers came from banks outside New York, who would lose tremendous amounts if prices of stocks continued to go down. He added that what he described as the "panic in Wall street" might lead to a "general business panic" of far-reaching consequences.

The same situation, he said, would accelerate enactment of a bill by Senator Glass (Dem.), Virginia, to tax stock sales and a resolution by Senator King (Dem.), Utah, proposing a sweeping investigation of the whole financial situation.

Bank Stocks Decline.
Severe declines took place in the prices of bank stocks, which are traded "over the counter." First National Bank stock dropped $300 a share, being quoted at $6300 bid and $6700 offered. National City Bank stock dropped $47 a share, Chase National $20. Equitable $10. Central Hanover $15. Corn Exchange $47 and Manufacturers Trust $15.

Second 1,000,000-share Day on Chicago Exchange.
By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The second 1,000,000-share day in the history of the Chicago Stock Exchange opened today as traders shoved their way into the market, and forced prices still further downward. Total sales were 1,179,000 shares, as compared with 1,220,000 shares last Thursday when the market first started to drop.

Commonwealth Edison led the day down hill, dropping 65 points to close at 235. Middle-West Utilities dropped 4 more points, finishing at 21 1/2 and hung up a new record for the exchange when a block of 30,000 shares changed hands in a single sale.

Reserve Board Said to Believe Business Is in Danger.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—After a six-hour session the Federal Reserve Board had no announcement to make today despite further declines in the New York stock market, but it was said unofficially nothing had occurred to cause any change in feelings previously expressed that the national business was on a safe basis and in no danger.

The Morgan Statement.

The Morgan statement follows: It is learned this morning that many of the leading institutions, including the J. P. Morgan & Co., National City Bank, First National Bank, Chase National Bank, Pan American Co., Equitable Trust Co., New York Trust Co., Irving Trust Co., Bank of America, are stating to their customers that for the present they plan to require the maintenance of only 5 per cent margin on their street debt.

gathered for luncheon. One told of lending money to four of his friends whose margins had been depleted. Another, engaged in a stock transaction with a partner, told of telling his friend of the difficulty each had in keeping informed by telegraph on the other's attitude as values shifted.

St. Louis brokers held a meeting Sunday night. It was warned and drafted a rule for the present "messy" New York market to the effect that margin money must be in cash. Many a money player, shoring his margins, took securities to his broker only to be told they were not acceptable. Cash was wanted.

Most of the big players, speculating in a dozen different stocks, had normally accepted cash and the other half wild, but promising until recently, vast returns in kiting prices—after three calls for margin money quickly closed out their wild stocks and strove to retain their sound ones. Clearing up their margin accounts entirely, they pursued straight the stocks they believed to have sound values, planning to hold them through the present demoralization and until they regain their real values.

Sizing Up the States. What would you do with Wisconsin?" the witness was asked. "I'd do with Wisconsin what I'd do with the rest of the country," replied Grundy. "The got a big laugh. You would let the Senators from Alabama have full voice?" said Borah, amidst laughter. He would.

Borah was asked about Georgia, thought it was doing better than it had been.

"How about Nebraska?" "That's pretty bad."

"How about Kansas?" "Kansas is as bad as it was."

"How about Utah?" "They are pretty good."

"Backward Arkansas." The witness, in telling of the "backwardness" of Arkansas, said although it had a population of 1,000,000, only 33,000 voted in the election when Senator Caraway last chosen. Caraway declared firmly, that the witness was not telling the truth.

Asked about South Carolina, he said that it "needed looking after." "We'll have to have the Philadelphia machine go down there look after it," commented Caraway.

Caraway brought up the great difficulties it required to get out vote in "the progressive State of Pennsylvania" in the year of golden primary, 1926, when William S. Vare was nominated elected.

"Why do you choose Idaho as a backward State, and Wyoming as?" asked Walsh. The witness did he didn't care to discuss the question.

"Isn't it because I am from Idaho?" asked Borah. "Well, in a way," replied Grundy. At 1:15 o'clock the witness was cased until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

PANTAGES JURORS VOTED FOR MERCY TO END DEADLOCK

Woman Who Held Out Till Last for Jail Sentence Still Does Not Believe All of Girl's Story.

VERDICT OF GUILTY AT THE OUTSET

Only Question Was of Theater Man's Culpability—Three on the Panel Wanted Some Leniency Shown

DR. JOHN ROACH STRATTON.

MISSING AUTO DEALER SOUGHT ON WARRANT

Paul J. Hartsough Who Left Note on Bridge, Wanted in Nebraska.

Paul J. Hartsough, whose name was signed to a farewell note found in the pocket of a coat on the Municipal Bridge Sunday afternoon, is sought by Nebraska authorities on charges of illegal removal of a mortgaged car from the State and of passing worthless checks, according to dispatches from Omaha.

Mr. Ulrich admitted she held out as the single juror for the sentencing of Pantages to the county jail.

"At no time was there a single vote for a full acquittal," she asserted. "Three of us voted for a jail sentence on the first ballot and the second day there were only two of us holding out for the mitigated sentence. I believed that there were circumstances that would permit us to vote for clemency and when this was agreed upon I switched my vote."

Views of Other Jurors. "Most of the other jurors seemed to under the impression that the suggestion for clemency for Mr. Pantages would mean that he would receive probation or a short jail sentence."

"I held out until the last because I did not believe all of Eunice Pringle's story. I do not believe it all now, for that matter."

Not Influenced, She Says. "I was not influenced by anyone in changing my vote. I did it because, after her testimony was read, there were certain points that convinced me that Mr. Pantages had attempted the attack. I do not believe the actual attack was planned."

"One thing that impressed me during the trial was that Eunice Pringle could never look me in the eye and seemed to be telling the truth."

"Mr. Pantages' and Miss Pringle's testimony were the principal things that we had to go on. It was a case of your word against his. I do not believe all of Miss Pringle's story, but after a review of the testimony I felt that I was justified in voting for conviction on attempted attack."

No Doubt as to Guilt.

William F. Vellage, another juror, asserted that at no time was there a doubt as to the guilt of Pantages.

The only question seemed to be his culpability," said Vellage.

Three of the jurors believed that some leniency should be shown in the way of a jail sentence instead of the state prison, because the girl's story was not clear in their minds.

Finally we reached an agreement to recommend leniency at the discretion of the Judge. We did this in order to bring the last juror around to a solid agreement. It was a matter that we knew, the world was watching, and the majority of us believed that Pantages should be convicted as charged in the indictment."

Four Years for Attempted Bribery in Mrs. Pantages' Trial.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—William R. McGee, bail bond broker, today faced a prison sentence of from one to 14 years as a result of attempting to bribe a policeman to "forget certain facts" in connection with the trial of Mrs. Lois Pantages on a charge of manslaughter.

McGee was tried, convicted and sentenced yesterday by Judge George F. Fricke, who presided at the trial of Alexander Pantages, husband of Mrs. Pantages, on a statutory charge. Both Pantages and his wife were convicted.

MAN AND WIFE BOTH DIE AFTER AUTO CRASH

Mrs. Cora Furlong, Second Victim, Succumbs at Decatur (Ill.) Hospital.

Mrs. Cora Furlong, 5953 Washington boulevard, died at a Decatur (Ill.) hospital last night of injuries suffered Saturday in an automobile accident in which her husband, Robert R. Furlong, was killed.

Furlong and his wife were on their way to Rochelle, Ill., to attend the wedding of his brother when their machine was crowded from the highway by another car and crashed into the concrete wall of a culvert. Furlong was formerly a salesman for the Nations Candy Co. A double funeral service will be held at Rochelle, where burial will take place.

E. W. Stoudt, Chicago, driver of the other machine, returned to Decatur yesterday and was placed under bond pending an inquest.

Boy, 6, and Girl, 14, Injured When Struck by Autos.

Junior Caley, 6 years old, 381 St. Ferdinand avenue, suffered fractures of both legs at 6 p. m. yesterday when he was struck at Vandeventer and St. Ferdinand avenues by an automobile driven by Patrick Hickey of St. Louis County.

Mary Meyers, 14 years old, 1508 Armstrong avenue, suffered a fracture of the skull when she was struck at 6 p. m. yesterday by a man driving by Harry Hensel, 401 Latona avenue, while crossing the street in front of 1116 South Jefferson avenue.

Albert J. Fox, 2128 Rosebud avenue, Wellston, suffered a fractured skull at 5:30 p. m. yesterday when struck by an automobile in front of 5749 Manchester avenue.

The driver, Samuel Burns of Grant road, St. Louis County, said Fox ran in front of his automobile toward a street car.

WORKMAN FOUND DEAD IN FIRE ASCRIBED TO EXTORTIONISTS

Forty Other Laborers Escape Injury in Party-Built Apartment House.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Fire thought to have been of incendiary origin last night did $250,000 damage to a five-story apartment house under construction in Upper Manhattan. Forty workmen in the building were uninjured.

John H. McGeehan, Bronx County District Attorney, has charged that recent fires in the Bronx were the work of extortionists. The fire last night was discovered on the ground floor of the building shortly after a man was seen to run from the building. The fire is thought to have been of the work of the extortion ring.

The burned body of a workman was found in the ruins. The body was identified as that of Josefa Sinasalchi, a plasterer.

AL SMITH'S LITTLE JOKE ON STOCK MARKET CRASH

"Will They Blame It on Us?" He Asks Western Massachusetts Democrats.

By the Associated Press.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 29.—"Will they blame the stock market on the Democrats?"—Al Smith was the message sent by Alfred E. Smith to a meeting of the Western Massachusetts Democratic Club last night.

The message was enthusiastically applauded, coming after Gov. Roosevelt of New York had declared that if such a market debacle ever took place in a Democratic administration it would immediately be hailed as the result of business bungling by the party in power.

CAUGHT AFTER ROBBING
MANSFIELD, MO., BANK

Thief Caught by Posse Near Hartville When His Auto Hits Another.

By the Associated Press.
HARTVILLE, Mo., Oct. 29.—The Bank of Mansfield, Mo., was held up and robbed of $4222 just at closing time last night by an unmasked man who locked five employees in the vault before making his getaway. He was captured 55 minutes later three miles north of Hartville by a posse headed by Sheriff M. J. Crews of Wright County.

The robber, who said his name was Walter Thompson, 28 years old, Omaha, Neb., is in the county jail here. He headed toward Hartville when he left the bank and Cashier George B. Freeman, who with four other employes, released himself from the vault 10 minutes after Thompson left, telephoned the sheriff.

The sheriff's car was gaining on Thompson when the latter collided with another machine. He offered no resistance when the sheriff drove up. The money was found on the seat beside him.

The bank employes were balancing the books when Thompson entered just before 5 o'clock. He drew a pistol and walked behind the counter. He forced the employes to sack the money and place it in his hat. When one of the tellers put some silver in the hat, Thompson forced him to take it out, saying "no silver." He left the five in the vault and drove off.

According to Prosecuting Attorney Leonard E. Newton, Thompson will be arraigned, for preliminary hearing today on a charge of first degree robbery and his case given to the grand jury tomorrow. Newton expects to obtain an indictment and take Thompson into Wright County Circuit Court, which is in session, Thursday.

Union, (Mo.) Bank Robbed by White Man and Two Negroes.

By the Associated Press.

UNION, Mo., Oct. 29.—The Bank of Union held up yesterday afternoon by two Negroes by a white man and two Negroes who escaped in an automobile.

H. C. Allersmeyer, president, and H. Muensterman, cashier, were in the bank when the three men entered. One Negro went to Muensterman's window and Allersmeyer told him to come to his window. The Negro asked for change for a dollar in nickels. While the bank president was changing the dollars, the Negro ordered him to put up his hands.

The other Negro gave a similar command to the cashier. The third robber entered and ordered the bankers to lie on the floor, while the robbers scooped up all the money in sight. They entered the safe and took the silver but failed to take a considerable amount of gold and Government bonds. They ordered Allersmeyer and Muensterman to get out but were unable to operate the locking device. They then ordered the bankers to lie down in the vault.

DRUGGIST BEATEN IN STORE HOLDUP

John Hassebrock Attacked and Robbed by Two Negroes at 1000 High.

John Hassebrock, 64-year-old proprietor of a drug store at 1000 High street, was beaten by two Negroes who held him up and took $1 and a cigar lighter at 7:20 o'clock last night.

Driving to his place to place in an old gray Ford, two highwaymen obtained $45 in holdups of three filling stations at Palm and Farrar streets, Union Boulevard and Main Avenue, and 1239 Goodfellow Street, beginning at 7:40 o'clock.

Leonard LaRue, driver for the Jordan Grocery Co., 5101 St. Louis Avenue, was held up and robbed of $125. Joseph Wash, driver for the Leston Mayonnaise Co., 7111 Manchester Avenue, was robbed of $15 and $20 worth of pickles and mayonnaise.

ADmits $100,000 BANK FRAUD; BLAMES RACES

Collections Teller of Chicago Depository Implicates Three Bookmakers.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Frank Culilton, collections teller of the Madison-Kedzie State Bank, confessed yesterday he had embezzled more than $100,000 from the bank since last February and he implicated three bookmakers to whom he said he had lost the money betting on horse racing.

Culilton, for seven years a trusted employee of the bank, was turned over to the State's Attorney for prosecution. The bank said its losses were fully covered by insurance.

The bookmakers, William Bolton, Edward McEvoy and S. Henny, were named in suits filed by the bank for injunctions seeking to restrain them from withdrawing money from their banks.

SURETY FIRM WINS SUIT FOR $295,000

Counterclaim Against Iowa Concern by E. G. Rolwing of Charleston, Mo., Dismissed.

The Federal Surety Co. of Daventry, Ia., won the suit against the Corn Cotton Land Co., and its president, Edward G. Rolwing of Charleston, Mo., under a consent decree filed yesterday in Federal Court.

In 1925 Rolwing purchased 1100 shares of the surety company's stock at $250 a share, giving in payment promissory notes secured by mortgages on 5500 acres of Southeast Missouri land.

By the terms of the decree, Rolwing and his company are declared to owe $295,051 in principal and interest on the notes which are in default and the land is to be foreclosed upon at Charleston, Dec. 9. Rolwing is permitted to keep this year's crops, valued at $40,000 to $50,000. His counter claim for $209,000 damages, representing the difference between what he paid for the stock and what he obtained by selling it, is dismissed under the decree.

Mrs. Anna Smythe Jackson Dies. Mrs. Anna Smythe Jackson, 4642 Loughborough Ave., widow of Arthur Jackson, died yesterday at

Los Angeles following a stroke of apoplexy. She had gone to California because of poor health. Mrs. Jackson, who was 57 years old, is survived by a son, Arthur L. Jackson, and a daughter, Mrs. E. W. Zell. Funeral services will be held Monday at 10 a.m. at Kriegshauser Undertaking Co., 4220 South Kingshighway boulevard, with burial in Alhambra Cemetery.

Doctors Show Quick Way to End a Cold By Pleasant Method

QUICKLY RELIEVED COLD CAUGHT ON TRAIN

Numbers of St. Louis People Find How Quickly the Misery and Danger of a Cold Can Be Ended by Hospital Method Doctors Now Advise for Home Use.

Realizing the needless misery and risk caused by neglecting colds at this season, doctors are now advising a pleasant, hospital certified method that quickly ends a head cold, chest cold or coughs due to colds. And the experience of Miss Alice Sherwood is typical of what is being accomplished, not only in extreme hospital cases but in home use among vast numbers of St. Louis people.

Pleasant to Take—
Soon Ended Cold

Miss Sherwood, for example, had neglected for three days a severe cold which she caught while sleeping on the train with her window open. Instead of getting better the cold grew worse and started spreading so fast that she was forced to stay in bed. Then she called her doctor, who advised double strength doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral formula—a hospital certified remedy composed of wild cherry, terpin hydrate and other ingredients recognized as the quiet and dependable way to end colds.

Relief began immediately when she felt its soothing, healing warmth—from her nose passages deep down into her chest. Within an hour or so the medication had been absorbed by her system, loosening up congestion and relieving the "aching" feeling. By night her fever was gone—and in another day or so, the doctor reports, examination showed there was no trace left of the cold.

Neglecting children's colds is sure to cause needless misery and most weaken resistance to various disease. So numbers of St. Louis people are using in their own homes the pleasant hospital treatment that gave such quick, welcome relief to the son of Mrs. A. H. Webster.

Mrs. Webster, for example, called her doctor when her son, Albert, Jr., awakened her by his harsh coughing. When the doctor arrived the child was breathing with difficulty and the thermometer showed high fever. Relief began quickly when he gave double strength doses of the Ayer's Cherry Pectoral formula—a hospital certified compound of ingredients approved by leading hospital clinics. In a few hours congestion disappeared entirely for the first time in three days. Next day he was out playing and in another day or so all trace of the cold was gone.

Note: See other cases being reported daily in this paper—all certified by the attending physician.

Ayer's Pectoral was hospital certified as the best of different widely used methods tested for head colds, coughs and chest colds due to colds. It is safe, quick, reliable—with absolute safety. It is now featured by all leading drugists.

Hospital Tests
NOT amateur opinions to help you*END COLDS Quickly

WHEN a head cold or chest cold makes its appearance in the family, wise housewives wonder what a competent physician would advise.

Yet it is not always convenient to call a doctor.

The next best thing is to use a remedy which competent physicians know is quick, safe and dependable!

THAT'S WHY

your druggist so often advises Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. He is guided by certified hospital tests which prove that the Ayer's Pectoral formula brings quick, welcome relief—even in extreme hospital cases—as well as in home use.

KING GEORGE RESUMES

FULL DUTIES NOV. 5

For First Time Since Illness He Will Take Personal Charge of Privy Council.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 29.—Taking full charge for the first time since his illness a year ago made necessary the appointment of six Councillors of State, King George will hold a Privy Council on Nov. 5 at Buckingham Palace.

It will be the fifth Privy Council in which he has participated since the meeting of Dec. 4, 1928, when the Queen, the Prince of Wales, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Chancellor, and the Lord Chief Justice were present to advise him.

At that time King George was dangerously ill, but technically presided over the council meeting in the next room, where the Privy Councillors sat, while Sir William Joynson-Hicks read the order paper standing in the doorway, a few feet from the King. The King then signed the document appointing the Councillors of State.

Not until late in the spring was the King able personally to take part in another Privy Council. The members, headed by Lord Balfour, then traveled from London to Bognor and met the King in a smoking room of Craigwell House.

The King has spent an autumn of active convalescence at Sandringham, which is his favorite country sojourn. He has been allowed by his doctors to go shooting. It is understood that the court will return to residence at Buckingham Palace Nov. 4, the eve of the Privy Council meeting.

The King did not participate in another council until June 5 when he resumed some of the duties delegated to the Councillors. Two more Councils were held in Buckingham Palace before he went to Sandringham, Norfolk.

The King has spent an autumn of active convalescence at Sandringham, which is his favorite country sojourn. He has been allowed by his doctors to go shooting. It is understood that the court will return to residence at Buckingham Palace Nov. 4, the eve of the Privy Council meeting.

MUTINY ON SHIP BARES $100,000 INSURANCE FRAUD

Riotous Crew Breaks Open Boxes of Supposedly Valuable Goods of Paper and Dust.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 29.—A mutiny which saved the lives of the crew and exposed a gang of Armenian and Turkish swindlers, broke out on the Greek ship Albania yesterday.

Furious because their wages had not been paid, the crew seized the cargo which had just been put aboard. Breaking open what were supposed to be bales of Oriental rugs and caviar, they found only paper and coal dust.

Thanks to the mutiny, police rounded up the swindlers in Istanbul. They confessed that they intended to sink the Albania when she had put out into the Sea of Marmara and claim $100,000 insurance from a Constantinople company.

Everybody will know... you CLEANED HOUSE if you use this easy modern method

You can see a REAL difference when you clean and brighten up floors woodwork, furniture and linoleum with OLD ENGLISH WAX

HOUSECLEANING at its best is a thankless job—most of the hard work doesn't show. Why not use the easy Old English Wax method and see how other people notice the big difference in the looks of your home.

Most of your home consists of wood—floors, woodwork and furniture. No other single item will add to or detract as much from the appearance of your home as the way in which this wood is kept polished and protected. You would gladly pay several dollars to have your rugs cleaned or a piece of furniture recovered—but for a few cents you can get enough Old English Wax to add hundreds of dollars to the appearance of your floors, furniture and woodwork in every room in the house.

A can of Old English Wax (Paste or Liquid) is all you need. The full directions on every can will tell you how to go about it in the easiest way. With this polish the whole job is done in one simple operation because no preliminary washing up is necessary. It is a thorough, antiseptic cleanser in itself. Your work is lightened—and the polish is better.

Because Old English Wax contains such a high percentage of imported Carnuba Wax, it imparts a more lasting polish, that is like armor plate protection against scratches, heelmarks, children's carelessness, hot dish marks, and wear of all kinds. If you want your work to show beautiful results, be sure and get Old English Wax.

Start Waxing Your Linoleum

Leading linoleum manufacturers say that linoleum will last forever if kept polished with Old English Wax. This is because it seals the porous surface of linoleum with a flexible, glasslike coat, that keeps the linoleum soft and pliable and at the same time protects it from hard wear and spilled liquids.

DALADIER QUIT, CAN'T FORM NEW FRENCH CABINET

Frustrated by Refusal of Socialists to Fuse With Radicals—Briand Likely to Be Called In.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Oct. 29.—Announcement was made late today that Edouard Daladier, Radical-Socialist leader, had given up the task of forming a Cabinet because of the refusal of the Socialists to participate.

Daladier proceeded to Elysee Palace this afternoon to inform President Doumergue of his failure to form a Cabinet.

All party leaders now expect that the President once again will call upon Aristide Briand, who was head of the recently defeated Government.

The French Socialists, through their National Council, today refused to join the Radical-Socialists in forming a new government.

The National Council adjourned last night after an agitated four-hour session. This morning, after an interval of nearly four hours, they voted 1,559 to 1,451 to reject the offer made by Daladier for equal representation in a Socialist coalition ministry.

France today entered its second week without a Cabinet and apparently as far removed from one as last Tuesday when Aristide Briand and his colleagues presented their resignations to President Doumergue.

Sunday the Socialist Deputies in the Chamber voted 36 to 12 to postpone the vote on the budget, under Premier Daladier, leaving the final decision, however, to the national council, which met last night and did not adjourn until early today.

The Socialists contention is that it would be profitless to participate in any government in which they are not in control, and that it would be much better to continue as leaders in the opposition than to do so.

Assent of Briand, former Premier, to retain the foreign portfolio in the new ministry continued today to be too strong a tie in Daladier's efforts, but there was a question whether it would be sufficient for his purposes.

SEEKS U. S. INVESTIGATION

OF METRIC SYSTEM'S VALUE

Congressman Britten of Illinois Would Have Secretary of Commerce Act.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—An investigation by the Secretary of Commerce to determine the possible advantages or disadvantages of the metric system of weights and measures for general use in the United States is proposed in a resolution by Representative Britten (Rep.), Illinois.

Britten said the metric system is accepted generally for international trade and its use is required by law by a large majority of the nations of the world. In his resolution he cited that the Legislatures of California, Illinois, Tennessee, North Dakota and Utah have asked Congress to enact legislation providing for the adoption of the system.

Another resolution introduced by Representative Britten would authorize the Secretary of Commerce to establish commodity quantity units for general use in merchandising after 1935. The units proposed in his resolution would standardize the yard to the meter, the quart to the liter and the pound to 500 grams decimalized divided.

Original Lemp Residence Is Damaged By Fire

Old Home at 112-114 South Second Street May Be Razed; Was Built in 1816.

The old home of the Lemp family, 112-114 South Second street, may be razed as a result of damage caused by last Saturday night's fire in the vinegar factory at 106 South Second. The original Lemp residence was part of the vinegar and sauerkraut factory, the main part of which was destroyed.

The house, said to have been built in 1816, was occupied by Adam Lemp who, in 1841, started the first lager beer brewery in St. Louis, in the buildings to the rear of the home. Most of these buildings have been removed.

The business was inherited by the Wissens, who came to St. Louis in 1850, removed it to South Front Street, extending through to South Broadway. After the Lemp family left the house it was used for years as a saloon, and as a sales depot for the brewery. It was owned by the Lemp estate until a few years ago.

ANN MURDOCK'S DIVORCED HUSBAND WEDS EX-ACTRESS

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Hallie Kepp Williams, former husband of Ann Murdoch, actress, was married to Ruth Anderson, former show girl, at Erie, Pa., on Saturday. It became known today.

Williams, who is wealthy, married Miss Murdoch in 1928, shortly after her divorce from Harry C. Phipps, a New York broker. The marriage ended in a divorce last September.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Dore E. Burton, United States Senator from Ohio, died last night. He was 77 years old. He had been ill for months. The end came before 10 o'clock, after a spell in which the Senator into unconsciousness from which he never awoke.

A rising temperature and irregular pulse already had alarmed tendants at his bedside, and summoned his physician, Dr. Bert Baker. Before the could reach his residence, ever, those gathered in the room found that the Senator died.

Robert Norton, secretary to Senator, who had been in constant attendance since his last Thursday night, had found him for a few minutes ago that he probably would through the night.

A short while before the Senator's death, President called to inquire as to his condition. Messages of condolence and sympathy and hope for his recovery had been received from Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain and Secretary of the Treasury Department, as well as from numerous members of the House and Senate.

Arrives With Him
Among the visitors to the bedside were Senator Fred C. Gilchrist and Bishop William T. McCall of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Miss Grace Burroughs of the Senator, and a Miss William Burton, were with him through the last hours. He had been unable to take nourishment through the day.

The body will lie in State Capitol throughout tomorrow.

The Senate today adopted a resolution expressing its profound sympathy over the death of Senator Burton and adjourned until 2:30 tomorrow as soon as possible.

Two resolutions were during the three-minute session.

One called for a funeral in the Senate chamber to begin at 2:30 o'clock, the other authorized the Vice President to appoint a committee of senators to supervise the services to be held where burial will take place.

Bells were offered by the state of Ohio, the late Senator's colleague.

Hoover Asked to Attend
President Hoover, members of the Cabinet and diplomatic high officials of the Army, Navy, members of the House, other prominent Government officials were invited to attend.

Senator Burton fully expected to attend, but he could not recover from the malady that gripped him.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Theodore E. Burton, United States Senator from Ohio, died here last night. He was 77 years old.

He had been ill for several months. The end came shortly before 10 o'clock, after a sinking spell in which the Senator lapsed into unconsciousness from which he never awakened.

A rising temperature and faltering pulse already had alarmed attendants at his bedside, and they summoned his physician, Dr. Robert Baker. Before the doctor could reach his residence, however, those gathered in the sickroom found that the Senator had died.

Robert Norton, secretary to the Senator, who had been in attendance constantly since his relapse last Thursday night, had left the apartment for a few minutes thinking that he probably would live through the night.

A short while before the Senator's death, President Hoover called to inquire as to his condition. Messages of condolence and sympathy and hope for his recovery had been received from Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain and Secretary Mellon of the Treasury Department as well as from numerous members of the House and Senate.

Relations With Him at End. Among the last visitors to the bedside were Senator Fess of Ohio and Bishop William T. MacDowell of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Miss Grace Burton, a niece of the Senator, and a nephew, William Burton, were with him through the last hours. He had been unable to take nourishment through the day.

The body will lie in State at the Capitol throughout tomorrow.

The Senate today adopted a resolution expressing its profound sorrow over the death of Senator Burton and adjourned until 2:15 p.m. tomorrow in a mark of respect.

Two resolutions were adopted during the three-minute session. One called for funeral services in the Senate chamber tomorrow, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The other authorized the Vice President to appoint a committee of 19 Senators to supervise the services and to accompany the body to Cleveland where burial will take place Thursday.

Both were offered by Senator Fess of Ohio, the late Senator Burton's colleague.

Hoover Asked to Attend. President Hoover, members of the Cabinet and diplomatic corps, high officials of the Army and Navy, members of the House and other prominent Government officers were invited to attend the services.

Senator Burton fully realized that he could not recover from the malady that gripped him severely.

GENEVA, Oct. 29.—The League of Nations has asked 53 governments to submit to Geneva as soon as possible their suggestions for strengthening existing means for preventing war.

The League's arbitration and security committee, which is an offshoot of the preparatory disarmament commission, has already completed several drafts of tentative multi-lateral treaties. The committee convention worked out at the last meeting of the assembly is being sent to all members of the League for consideration as to whether it will serve as the basis for treaty.

SANDINO PLANS TO VISIT

By the Associated Press.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 29.—After residing for several months in Yucatan, Augustino Sandino, former Nicaraguan leader, has planned a visit to this city with the hope of being received by President Portes Gil, according to an announcement by his friends here.

Preparations are being made for Sandino's arrival late this week or early next week.

Sandino left Nicaragua some time ago and, having been granted permission to reside in Mexico, took up quarters in Merida after a brief visit to Vera Cruz. He avoided the coming to the capital at that time.

The body will lie in State at the Capitol throughout tomorrow.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles; that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate inefficiency or corruption, always stand uncompromisingly for all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news; always be drastically independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory attorney or predatory poverty.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Champions of Social Justice.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I HAVE just studied Fitzpatrick's wonderful cartoon, "The Misses of North Carolina," and finished your splendid edition of "The National Disgrace." I note where witnesses were disqualifyed in a North Carolina court by a Judge Shaw, because of their negative answers to questions concerning their belief in the Bible, God and eternal punishment. Shades of the Founding Fathers! These are the times that try men's souls! Judge Shaw must have taken these words of Thomas Paine literally.

I think of Thomas Jefferson, a free thinker; of John Adams, who considered Christianity as a sort of disease; of wise Benjamin Franklin, who bought Thomas Paine to America; of James Monroe with whom Paine lived for a year and a half during which time he attacked Christianity; and of the Father of our Country who refused to kneel in church. I ask those who enjoy the freedom and liberty of our country, won through the efforts of the above gentlemen, but who look with disrespect upon radicals and unbelievers of our time, to try to find the religious men of that day who fought for freedom and, if they find any, to compare them with the unbelievers mentioned above mentioned.

Today, when and where the poor are being crushed by the rich and powerful, we again find the unbelievers taking sides with the weak and downtrodden. When academic freedom was threatened in Tennessee, we found Darrow at Dayton; in Gastonia where the workers are being starved we now hear the protesting voice of Sinclair Lewis; in the United States Senate when the tariff robbers are busy we find the unbelievers taking sides with the weak and downtrodden. Like Marco Bozzaris, Senator Bingham may be said to be "bleeding at every vein." Daggers of indignation, poinards of wrath, barongs of saire, bayonets of logic and quizzical snickersees were thrust, jabbed, hurled, driven and loosed at him during the sanguinary melee on the Senate floor, and the unflinching scorer records not a single miss. In this extremity it seems to us that the Connecticut Manufacturers' Association ought to come to the aid of its good friend with a rush. What can it do? you may ask. It can send him a barrel of liniment and a bale of bandages.

FOR SENATOR BINGHAM.

CITY AND CITIZEN.

It is said of Chicago that a powerful factor in her success was the civic impetus given her years ago by a group of business men who met every day at lunch to consider what they could do for Chicago. It was an illustrious group, one of whose members was the late Marshall Field.

There is a great difference between that sort of thing and what has recently gone on in St. Louis. St. Louis also stands at a turning point in her history. She has outgrown the old systems of transportation. She needs modern service properly to relate her outstanding residence section to downtown. Under ordinary civic conditions there would be a move among citizens to bring the community progressively through this crisis. That is, the public interest and the obvious needs of the city would ordinarily be the concern of its citizens, including the local counterparts of the men who considered daily what they could do for Chicago.

But the condition in St. Louis is by no means ordinary. Some years ago J. K. Newman of New York joined with a group of St. Louisans to reorganize the local street railway system. The story of Newman and his design upon St. Louis is told in full elsewhere in today's Post-Dispatch. The local street car system was then in receivership. What Newman was doing with the street railways was being done with all other public utilities in the country. The practice was and still is to join these properties together under a holding company, to pyramid their securities and to sell them to the investing public. That is what Newman and his associates planned to do here. Newman was also reorganizing the Kansas City street railways. It is customary in this practice to get a long-term grant for the utilities. Men like Newman have learned that these grants divest the people of home rule and pitch the properties into the realm of high finance. Two hundred and fifty-three American cities have 10-cent car fares because they have not been thoughtful enough to protect themselves against this practice.

As in St. Louis, the procedure in many of these cities has been to let local people in on the deal. When local people have a stake in the manipulation they lay aside civic conscience and stand with the exploiters.

This is the situation in St. Louis today. Newman has not secured his franchise, but that is not the fault of his local associates. They have been willing to barter the streets of the city for their personal enrichment. They have been willing to nullify the city charter. They are willing now to exploit the city's need for modern transit, and except for insistent exposure of their unpatriotic design they would still control the commission appointed by the Mayor to ascertain our transportation needs. The commission had scarcely come into existence when it fell under the influence of Newman and his associates. Created for two years by ordinance, it has wasted 15 months of its life trying to get a franchise for Newman and his powerful local associates. The people were meanwhile asked to believe tales worthy of Dr. Cook. The company will need a franchise 12 or 14 years from now to allocate its surface lines with a subway system that has not even been mentioned by the Mayor's commission or its transportation expert. The permit system under which Detroit exercises control over the utilities by mandate of the United States Supreme Court would not work in St. Louis, though it is working with every bus operated in the city. Unless the company gets a franchise it cannot refund $34,000,000 in bonds falling due in 1934. Without a new franchise it cannot make extensions and improvements.

Not one of these professions is true. Mr. Newman and his associates want a franchise so they can sell the swollen securities of the company to a distant and gullible public. They care nothing about St. Louis, and in their zeal to profit themselves they have moyed some of the most ponderous commercial and financial influences in the city. They only lost their hold upon the commission when its position became untenable.

What would become of the city if citizenship were to remain so low as that?

STIMSON, KELLOGG AND KAROLYI.

Secretary of State Stimson announces that permission to enter the United States has been granted to Count and Countess Karolyi. Since 1925, Karolyi, Hungarian patriot, was on the State Department blacklist because Secretary Kellogg did not like his political opinions. In that year, he asked for a visa so that he might visit his wife who was seriously ill in New York. Mr. Kellogg at first declined, then relented on the promise that Karolyi would make no speeches on public questions. Karolyi kept his word, but later went to Canada and publicly denounced the Horthy regime in Hungary. That speech made him indeed persona non grata at the State Department.

The incident created a good deal of discussion, especially among old-fashioned Americans who recalled the tumultuous reception given to Kossuth, another Hungarian patriot, in 1851; and who were under the impression that one of the glorious traditions of this country was its sympathy with oppressed peoples and their champions. Certainly Karolyi is the champion of the Hungarian people. He organized and was the first President of the short-lived Hungarian Republic, and he sacrificed his entire personal fortune, once valued at $20,000,000, for his political ideals. He is the steadfast enemy of the Horthy government and is a popular hero among the Hungarian masses. Once these would have been considered glittering credentials, but Secretary Kellogg thought of Karolyi only as an unwelcome "radical."

Last September, when Karolyi was en route Mexico to Europe, he was permitted to land at New York and spend two days in this country without a passport. But the State Department ban was unrelaxed and Karolyi was given to understand he was here only on sufferance.

Secretary Stimson's action is a blunt reversal of the Kellogg policy. It indicates a wholesome change in the direction of liberalism has taken place in the State Department since the departure of Mr. Kellogg. Mr. Stimson evidently does not share the latter's almost pathologic fear of persons whose opinions are at variance with his own. The new policy toward Karolyi helps to restore the State Department to the dignity of which the aptly-dubbed "Nervous Nellie" robbed it by his extraordinarily narrow views.

Finding of a Ukrainian city lost for 800 years proves again what a big country Russia is.

A NEW KIND OF ORPHAN.

The gaudy city of Los Angeles, where American civilization may be observed in all of its most eccentric aspects, has now given us something new in the line of orphans. We refer to Carmen, Lloyd and Rodney Panfagies. Their father, Alexander, is in jail pending execution of a 1-to-50-year prison sentence. Their mother, Lois, is in physical collapse following conviction on a charge of manslaughter.

Like Marco Bozzaris, Senator Bingham may be said to be "bleeding at every vein." Daggers of indignation, poinards of wrath, barongs of saire, bayonets of logic and quizzical snickersees were thrust, jabbed, hurled, driven and loosed at him during the sanguinary melee on the Senate floor, and the unflinching scorer records not a single miss. ANOTHER VESTRIS.

An American Leisure Class

This country has despised leisure, largely due to necessity of everyone's working in pioneer days; fortunes now have grown so that many persons are released to different mode of living; such a class might add to literature and art, and would enliven our dull scene; pursuit of arms and of sports likely outlets for this group.

Hoffman Nickerson in the American Mercury.

A LONE among the nations known to his history, the American, since 1865, has despised leisure. He has confused it with mere idleness, persistently believing that the man who withdraws his energies from the task of making money for his wife to spend is a futile and probably vicious fellow. He has taken pride in saying how hard he works. Until the other day even wealthy men kept up the motions of doing so; it was an affectation quite as clearly as Disraeli's "Sir, a gentleman is never busy."

Now, in itself leisure is simply freedom from the necessity of earning a living, to which necessity most men have always been bound. It is far more than permission to loaf. The man of high energy, who is precisely the man most likely to achieve or to succeed, soon finds loafing a bore. Nothing but his own limitations then keep him from the exciting discovery that, in permitting him to work at other than money-getting jobs, leisure has put into his hands a tool, perhaps even a weapon, of great power. It is a tool or weapon that we are here concerned with it.

Land, on the contrary, would seem almost ideally suited to leisure ownership. The rapidity with which Americans trade in it nevertheless leaves it harder to locate.

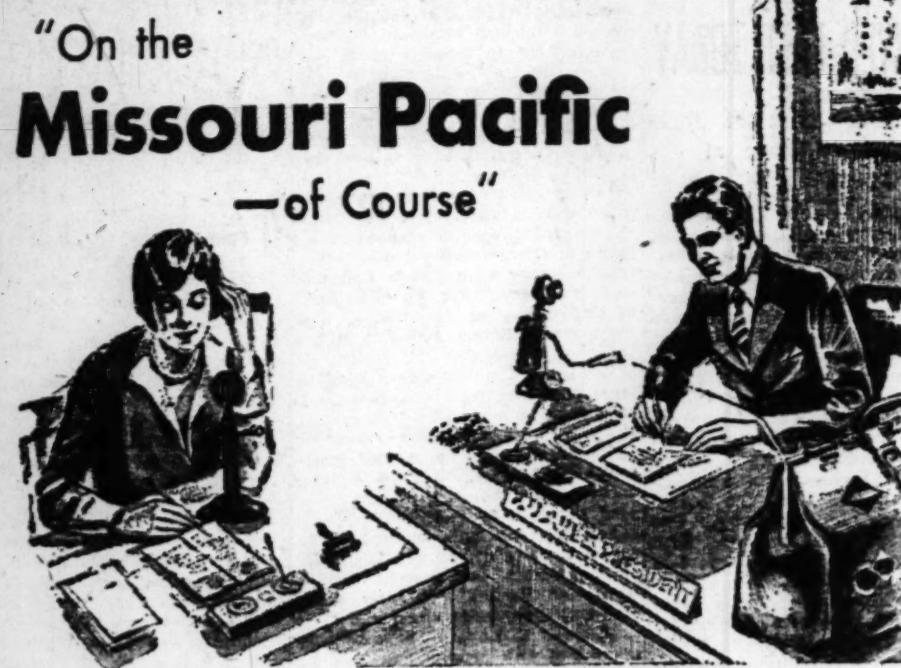

It is the economic basis of our

THEODORE BURTON, SENATOR FROM OHIO, DIES AT 77

Carl months ago, expressed several desires which will be carried out in arrangements for the funeral. Among these, he requested that the funeral sermon be preached by Bishop McDowell, an old friend, and that the Knights Templar conduct the service at his grave.

Senator Fess of Ohio announced that the chaplains of the Senate and House would officiate at the Coffin service, assisted by Rev. James Noble Pierce, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Washington.

Comment of Colleagues.

Many expressions of regret were heard as word of his death spread through official Washington. His colleague, Senator Fess of Ohio, mourned his death as a "national loss."

He described Senator Burton

as "the highest type of a legislator, courageous to the extreme, and a fighter to the last known as a demagogue."

He added that the dead Senator in his career represents the finest type of the public servant and will rank with the best in Europe or America."

Chairman Hawley of the House

Ways and Means Committee, termed Senator Burton "one of the great statesmen of America."

Chairman Wood of the House Appropriations Committee and Representative Garner of Texas, the Democrat, leader, also joined in the tribute evoked by Senator Burton's death.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

enty-fifth birthday was celebrated with a dinner here, the Senator, half in jest and half in earnest, said he had two ambitions—to die in office and to be buried in a military cemetery. Five weeks ago he summoned City Manager William H. Hopkins made three hurried airplane trips to toe capital to discuss the plans but did not disclose their purpose until after the Senator's death.

At noon Thursday, the funeral procession will form at the public hall and with a military escort, go to the Euclid Avenue Congregational Church, where the services will be conducted by the Rev. Ferdinand Q. Blanchard, pastor of the church. Burial will take place in Lakeview Cemetery.

If you're left behind in traffic change to

KOOLMOTOR GASOLENE

THE ORIGINAL HIGH-TEST, ANTI-KNOCK GREEN GAS

When you're lined up in traffic and it's time to go—don't envy the fellow who lets you to it while your engine struggles on the get-set.

Change to Koolmotor gasoline—the original high-test, anti-knock green gas.

Koolmotor gasoline is used for its quick pick-up. You go from first-to-second, as fast like lightning. Koolmotor is a real high-test gas—that's why it can do all these things for you.

In addition, Koolmotor is anti-knock. It takes you up and over steep hills in high without knocking or faltering and making you shift gears. You also can slow down in traffic and go around corners without shifting into second.

Why not obtain these benefits right now—by driving to the nearest Cities Service station or dealer and filling up with Koolmotor. It's a great gas.

Cities Service Proves its Quality

ON THE ROAD in the Cities Service fleet of more than 4000 motor vehicles of all types operating day and night in all sorts of roads, in all kinds of weather.

Arguing for the 6 per cent rate, Wagner said of $4,229,917 pounds of olive oil consumed in this country last year, only 1,428,017 pounds were produced in this country. This showed there was no need of a higher tariff, he said.

Johnson and Shortridge (Reps.) of California, contended for a higher duty on behalf of the olive growers of their State and asserted Wagner had presented in his arguments "the brief of the Italian Chamber of Commerce of New York City."

Other rates approved, with comparisons of House and present duties, were:

The estate of Paul Jones, real estate dealer who died Oct. 19, is bequeathed to his widow, Mrs. Margaret H. Jones, 5370 Pershing appointed executrix without bond.

The estate in his will, filed in Probate Court at Clayton today.

The will, made Feb. 21, 1912, directs that each of Mr. Jones' four children receive $1. Mrs. Jones is Margaret H. Jones Jr., vice president of the real estate firm; William P. Jones, a student; Mrs. Margaret Whipple and Mrs. Virginia Hatch.

The bodies were burned beyond recognition, but were identified from papers found in the wreckage.

Miss Rose was co-pilot of the plane, which was on an aerial survey. Clark and Mercer were members of the Shields-Clark flying service of Portland, an aerial photographic firm.

A. P. Wolford, a farmer, said he heard the plane's motor stop. The pilot evidently maneuvered to come down in a small field surrounded by trees. The plane dived to the ground and caught fire.

Other witnesses differed in their versions. Some told stories similar to that of Wolford, while others said the plane, flying unusually low, side-slipped as it was banking above a ridge and struck a tall tree while the motor was running.

All agreed that the plane burst into flames as it hit the tree. An explosion followed, the witnesses declared.

ELISHA BROCKMAN ACCUSED OF KILLING FRANK DRENNING; STATE CONCLUDED CASE.

Testimony for the State in the trial of Elisha Brockman, Glencoe restaurant keeper, cleared him of first degree murder in the death of Frank Drenning of Joliet, whom he shot Sept. 9, 1928, was concluded after five witnesses had been heard at Clayton today. Brockman's lawyer, in his opening statement, said it would be shown that Brockman fired in self-defense.

Witnesses testified that Drenning, who had been drinking, quarreled with Brockman and a musician at the restaurant, and finally threw two bottles at Brockman, who then fired the shots that killed Drenning.

Brockman is on trial before Circuit Judge Mulloy. He was exonerated at a coroner's inquest after the shooting, but indicted five days later.

O. A. LIFE HEADS ADVERTISERS.

Oliver A. Life, advertising manager for the Emerson Electric Co., was elected president of the Industrial Advertisers' Association at its annual meeting last night at the Forest Park Hotel. Other officers chosen were: James R. Kearney Jr. and Carl B. Dietrich, vice presidents; Noel Grady, secretary, and G. C. Bradshaw, treasurer.

SENATOR MOSES URGES G. O. P. TO KILL TARIFF BILL.

rather the lack of speed at which the Senate had worked since September demonstrated that there was almost no hope for a final vote on the Senate bill before the close of the present extra session. At present there are 788 amendments resting in desk of the presiding officer and hundreds of others probably will be offered later.

SENATE DIVIDED AS TO OIL AND PAINT SCHEDULES.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The Senate has agreed that it must enact a tariff bill, but is divided in opinion as to its ultimate content and end. Today consideration of disputed rate schedules was again taken up.

Still concerned with the first of the 15 rate schedules of the bill, there remained for disposition by the Senate the more important rates for chemicals, oil and paints.

An independent Western Republican proposal for a blanket levy of 45 per cent ad valorem on vegetable oils and fats had been postponed until committee amendments of the first schedule can be completed.

Party and group lines split on two roll calls on the committee proposal to eliminate the House increase of 1 cent a pound in the 7½ cents duty on olive oil, weighing with container less than 40 pounds. An amendment by Senator Wagner (Dem.) of New York, to cut the rate to 6 cents was defeated, 67 to 8, and then a proposal by Senator Goldsborough (Rep.) of Maryland increased it to 9½ cents, carried, 48 to 34.

On the Wagner proposal, 23 Democrats and 44 Republicans voted against, and 2 Republicans and 6 Democrats supported it. Goldsborough's amendment drew 35 Republicans and 8 Democrats to its support and 23 Democrats and 11 Republicans against it.

Arguing for the 6 per cent rate,

Wagner said of $4,229,917 pounds of olive oil consumed in this country last year, only 1,428,017 pounds were produced in this country. This showed there was no need of a higher tariff, he said.

Johnson and Shortridge (Reps.) of California, contended for a higher duty on behalf of the olive growers of their State and asserted Wagner had presented in his arguments "the brief of the Italian Chamber of Commerce of New York City."

METROPOLITAN OPERA
OPENS IN NEW YORK

Long Skirts Make Event Like
Those Before War—Lucrezia
Bori Sings "Manon."

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—New York's 400 journeyed to the Metropolitan Opera House last night and made their annual obeisance to the glory that was society before the World War.

There in the auditorium last night, under the golden horsehoe that glowed softly like great circles of fire in the wintry air in the subdued light, red skyscrapers piercing the sky seemed fantastic and very far away. And unreal the drone of airplanes, the howl and blast of traffic, jazz over a loud speaker, all the harsh and exciting noises of the New York of today.

More like those golden openings 20 and 30 years ago than many other in recent years must have been that opening of the Metropolitan and New York's social season last night.

Long skirts are back—skirts that sweep the floor and look even longer below ermine evening wraps that were made for short skirts and now refuse to be lengthened. And with long skirts have come long white kid gloves and fans and tiaras and hair waved softly back in graceful knots at the nape of the neck.

And behind these costumes, so feminine after the years of no waistlines and knee-length skirts, glistened white shirts fronts framed in black, with here and there a foreign uniform, horizon blue and scarlet.

Lucrezia Bori, surpassingly lovely in the white wig and frills and puffs of the eighteenth century, was Manon Lescaut—the Italian Manon of Puccini, the role in which she won her engagement in the Metropolitan 19 years ago. Beniamino Gigli was the lover and Tullio Serafin conducted.

The first curtain descended. Manon was gone and exiled Manon now, with bright waves of auburn hair cascading down over her shoulders as if attempting to hide her shabbiness—came out and took her last curtain call, gracefully kissed her hands in farewell.

U. S. VISAS ORDERED ISSUED TO COUNT KAROLYI AND WIFE

Thus Stimson Lifts Ban on Socialists' Entry in Effect Since World War.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The State Department instructed the United States Consulate in Paris last night to issue unconditional temporary visas to Count Michael Karolyi and Countess Karolyi, Hungarian Socialists, for entry into the United States.

Secretary of State Stimson said his order was not a complete reversal of rulings by former Secretaries Hughes and Kellogg, but it was generally regarded as presaging a less conservative attitude toward entry by foreigners of liberal views.

It was understood that the move behind the Hughes and Kellogg rulings involved questions of the radical tendencies of Count and Countess Karolyi and a fear that they would engage in subversive propaganda while in the United States.

A formal statement by Stimson explained a new investigation of the case had resulted in the conclusion that the two were not members of any group which is prohibited entry into the United States under the existing immigration regulations.

PLAZA NATIONAL BANK OPENS

Depository is Quartered in Missouri Pacific Building.

The new Plaza National Bank opened for business today in the Missouri Pacific Building, Thirteenth and Olive streets.

Flowers from other banks and leading business houses of the city decorated the lobby. Officers of the depository, including J. W. Reinhold Jr., president, and C. A. Reinhold, cashier, greeted hundreds of visitors. Mrs. L. W. Baldwin, wife of the president of the Missouri Pacific, was the first savings account depositor, receiving Book No. 1.

Distributed until the capital and surplus total $25,000,000. Dividends on all stock, however, can be subscribed to only by farmer elevator associations, farmer owned grain sales agencies and growers' grain pools, will not be in excess of eight per cent. Stock will be sold upon a minimum basis of $100 a share, to be paid for either in cash or terms.

Must Meet Provisions.
Only associations meeting the provisions of the Capper-Voistead Act may subscribe for the capital stock of the corporation. The main provisions of this act are: Membership shall be made up of agricultural producers; the association must be operated for the mutual benefit of its members; that the association does not do more business with nonmembers than with members and that it must follow the principle of one vote per member or else dividends on capital stock must be limited to eight per cent.

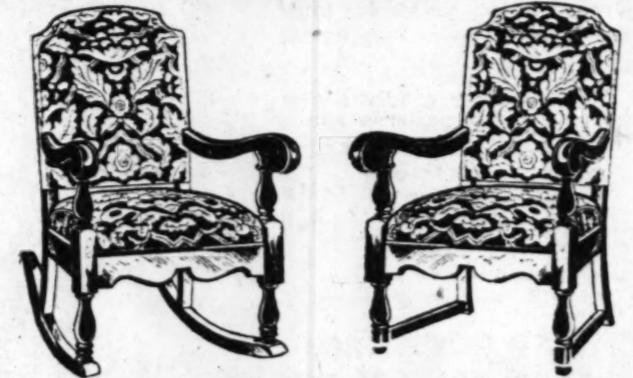

In making arrangements to handle grain or its stockholding members the corporation, under its charter, may buy the grain or handle it on a brokerage basis.

WOMAN DIES OF RABIES; LOS ANGELES JUDGE'S ADVICE TO ST. LOUIS

Mrs. Josephine Geiger Injured Two Months Ago Failed to Take Treatment.

Rabies caused the death yesterday of Mrs. Josephine Geiger, 42 years old, who lived on Clayton road near Price road, St. Louis County, her physician said today. Mrs. Geiger was bitten on the right leg by a stray dog that attempted to come into the rear yard of her home two months ago. The dog was not caught.

Mrs. Geiger did not take antirabies serum. She died at the Lutheran Hospital at 7:30 p.m. The physician, Dr. J. B. Stoelein, 3 North Central avenue, Clayton, signed a death certificate giving rabies as the cause of death. He was not called until last Saturday because it was not until then that Mrs. Geiger felt the effects of the injury.

She is survived by her husband, John, a gardener, three daughters and a son. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon.

The NEW 50¢ Colgate Toothbrush

(Designed by Colgate Department of Dental Education)

GIVEN AWAY

to each purchaser of

Two 25¢ Tubes of Colgate Ribbon Dental Cream

SAVE 50 CENTS

The Colgate brush has amazing penetrating, cleansing power... because the bristles are scientifically serrated... tufted... to get into the tiny fissures, crevices and hard-to-reach places where ordinary toothbrushes fail to penetrate.

Brush teeth with this up and down motion, advise dentists. The new Colgate Toothbrush is especially designed to make this action doubly effective. Do not brush across the teeth.

When you brush your teeth on the inside, use an in-and-out stroke. Note how the fine bristles invigorate the gums.

FREE OFFER: To induce still more people to try Ribbon Dental Cream... the scientific dentifrice with the foaming, penetrating action... we make this remarkable offer. Only Colgate... world's largest maker of tooth paste... could finance such a proposition. The resources and guarantee of this hundred-million-dollar firm are behind this deal. There is no "catch" to this offer. Colgate simply wants you to try Ribbon Dental Cream. To repay you for doing this, we offer you a genuine new Colgate Toothbrush... as described... actual value 50 cents... ABSOLUTELY FREE!

The brush

This tooth brush — the newest, most advanced type known to dental science — was designed by the Colgate Department of Dental Education... a group of dentists who have studied the needs of hundreds of thousands of men, women and children.

Examine this brush. Study its shape, its size, its bristles. It is made by skilled American workers... under the most sanitary conditions... from selected, imported snow-white bristles of finest quality. Every brush is carefully inspected. Handles are of lovely transparent material, in 5 exquisite shades of green, purple, amber. Bristles are held in a firm vise-like grip that never loosens.

This brush is identical in quality, in size, in durability to nationally advertised brushes that sell regularly in the better stores at 50c. Now yours free with this unique offer.

The dentifrice

Colgate's Ribbon Dental Cream is the world's largest-selling tooth paste. More people use it... and more dentists recommend it... than any other dentifrice.

The reason for this is simply that Colgate's cleans teeth better. Colgate's contains the world's best cleansing agent — a penetrating foam that cleanses where the tooth-brush cannot reach.

Your dentist will tell you that decay doesn't start on the smooth outer surfaces of the teeth... but in the tiny crevices where food particles and mucus collect.

No tooth brush can reach these hard-to-clean places. They must be cleaned by the dentifrice. Hence the real test of a tooth paste is its ability to get down into these crevices and cleanse them thoroughly. A scientific test recently proved that Colgate's has greater penetrating power than any of the leading tooth pastes on the market today — the secret of Colgate's superior cleansing power.

The foam of Colgate's carries a fine chalk powder... a polishing material prescribed by dentists... which polishes the enamel safely, brilliantly.

The Colgate method of scientific tooth brushing

After years of study and thousands of experiments, the Colgate Method of scientifically cleansing the teeth has been developed by the Colgate Dept. of Dental Education.

This Method is most effective when Ribbon Dental Cream is brushed on with the Colgate Brush. For the springy, serrated bristles, set at exactly the right distance, act in a way that applies the full, concentrated cleansing power of the famous Colgate foam... deep down into the "hard-to-clean" places. Only thus can you be sure of cleaning these difficult spots where decay lurks.

Start today to use the Colgate Method of Scientific Tooth Brushing... and note the difference in your teeth ten days hence.

NOTE!

This offer is strictly limited. The supply of brushes has been rigidly allotted to the stores which are co-operating in this great offer. They will not last long... once people find this announcement. So, act NOW! It may be months or even years before we can repeat this amazing proposition.

NEW CENTRAL HIGH ON OLD SITE SUGGESTED

Arrangement Proposed in View of Difficulty of Finding Suitable Land.

Casting about for a site for the new Central High School, the Board of Education is considering the possibility of using the large piece of ground it owns at Grand boulevard and Windsor place, where Central High School formerly stood. This site, now enlarged, was occupied by Central until the 1927 tornado damaged the old structure so that it had to be torn down.

Since then Central has used the quarters formerly devoted to Yeaman High. The problem of finding the right sort of new site for Central is being given the board much thought.

The board has referred the question of using the Grand boulevard property to its Special Intermediate School Survey Committee. This committee had recommended that the new Central High School be erected in the district bounded by Lindell boulevard, Kingshighway, Chouteau avenue and Sarah street, and the board accepted this. Grand and Windsor is some distance to the north and east of this district.

The board had voted last May to spend $250,000 for a site on Central School with the understanding that it would serve the southwestern part of the city. It voted also to spend $1,450,000 for shop and laboratory units of the new Hadley Vocational High School at the rear of the Grand and Windsor site, with the prospect of spending $1,300,000 more later for academic and auditorium units at the front. Now the board is considering the erection at this time also of the academic unit and perhaps the auditorium, turning them over to Central until the Hadley school might require them in will not need all the units for some future. It is thought that Hadley Temporary Arrangement. This arrangement would not provide a permanent home for Central, but some board members feel it might be a satisfactory measure until a final location can be selected. The board is on record to meet the public demand for perpetuation of Central's oldest high school west of the Mississippi as a modern academic high school.

Last June there was a proposal to buy a site for Central from the city in the southeastern quarter of Forest Park, but city officials refused. Then the board opened a discussion for the purchase of the home of the late David R. Francis, with a lot facing on Newstead, Maryland and Pershing avenues. This is in abeyance, as the absence from the city of one spokesman for the Francis estate has kept the board from getting definite terms. This matter is before the Site Committee.

There would not be room for adequate athletic fields for the high school either the Grand boulevard property or the Francis site. There has been some talk about the possibility of providing an athletic field on the roof.

It is expected that a contract will be let in January or February for the shop and laboratory units of Hadley School. The board owns part of the block bounded by Grand boulevard, Bell and Channing avenues, south of the Odeon, except the southeast corner of Grand and Bell.

The special Intermediate School Survey Committee also has been asked to consider use of property the board owns at the southwest corner of Kingshighway and Arsenal street for another high school to serve the southwestern territory.

Seeking Site for Negro School. The board is negotiating with the Public Service Co. for a lot on the north side of Enright avenue, a short distance west of Vandeventer avenue and just east of the Holodiamond trolley right-of-way, as a site for a Negro school to replace West Belle School. The lot has a frontage of 400 feet and is about 200 feet deep. There have been complaints about the West Belle and the board has been seeking a new site for several years. An effort was made to acquire land in the West Belle place neighborhood but officials said that property owners demanded exorbitant prices. It was proposed to co-operate with the city, which wants to create a Negro playground in this section, but the board does not want to await condemnation proceedings. The Public Service Co. it is understood, asked $100,000 for the Enright avenue lot, while the board has offered $55,000.

Nearly TWO MILLION People CAN'T Be Wrong— and MAJESTIC Still Makes and Sells 6,000 Radio Sets Daily

Today from nearly every newspaper page you are being shouted at to "watch your step" in buying a radio set, to "look for this" or "look for that." You are being implored to "buy a strictly modern radio." You are being told that "no radio but the famous Gazookis is up to the minute, because it has the new blah, blah, blah—something that no other radio manufacturer can equal."

There is nothing to get excited about. It is so simple to buy a good radio set today, if you look for only two things, which your own mind and your own ears are fully capable of deciding. First, the performance (tone quality), and secondly, is the reputation of the manufacturer sufficient to guarantee that your investment is safe and permanent.

Majestic has always said, "You cannot buy a better radio set than Majestic at any price." We rest our case on that statement. You are the judge. We do not need to tell you that Majestic can make any sort of set, and can manufacture and use in that set, any type of tubes that are known in the radio world. Majestic has access to all the patents, has all the manufacturing facilities, has all the financial resources necessary to do the job.

Majestic is making the kind of sets that are being produced today because, point for point, we know "You can't buy a better radio set than Majestic at any price." If you hear a Majestic, if you listen to its colorful tone, its faithful reproduction, if you examine its sturdy construction, its oversize power pack, its beautifully blended cabinet woods, and compare these points in a side by side test with any other set on the market at any price, then you'll buy a Majestic.

May we remind you, with modest pride, that there are nearly two million happy owners of Majestics today. Two million owners in 17 months—think of it!

Majestic is now making 6,000 sets each working day. You are welcome to come and see for yourself. You may watch them loaded on the freight cars in a continuous stream each day till the last set is aboard. This is an unusual invitation which only Majestic can make to you, because only Majestic is doing this kind of a job.

Remember, one swallow does not make a summer and one talking point does not make a good radio set. To be a good set, everything about it has to be good. Majestic does not confuse the issue by shouting one form of superiority and ignoring every other important point. Everything about a Majestic has to be good or we could not sell 6,000 a day. Is it too much to say that nearly two million people cannot be wrong?

Your investment IS safe with Majestic.

KISER AND STILLMAN WINNERS IN FEATURE BOUTS AT COLISEUM SHOW

OKLAHOMA BATTLER SCORES OVER SMITH; LOCAL MIDDLE FAILS TO ADD MALLINI TO KAYO VICTIMS

By Damon Kerby

The suppleness of youth was served over age and experience last night at the Coliseum, when a long-legged, long-armed lad named Ray Kiser of Tulsa outpointed the veteran Steve Smith of Bridgeport, Conn., in as pretty a boxing contest as has been fought here the past two seasons.

There was only one knockdown, Smith being dropped in the first round when Kiser shot a fast right to the chin. That's all occurred with Smith in neutral corner. He was up before Referee Walter Heisner could start a count, but nevertheless it was a clean knockdown. Smith left his feet on another occasion, but it was evident he slipped.

Smith and Kiser demonstrated that a boxing match does not have to be a slap-a-bang, drag-out affair to please the customers. No wild exchanges marked the contest, yet both boys were trying all the time, giving an exhibition of clever ring work that brought genuine applause.

Kiser Proves Surprise.

To say that Kiser's showing surprised most persons is putting it mildly. Kiser is but a youth, with limited experience, while Smith has fought more than 100 fights. The youngster carried the fight virtually all the way, and had puffed up Smith's nose as early as the fifth round with well-placed rights.

Each round saw Kiser stepping forward with long lefts and rights, with Smith fighting almost on his heels, with his gloves close to his body and his right half-cocked. Before going further, a few kind words may be said for Smith.

He was never far out of the running. Indeed, his right hand was one of the factors that made the fight interesting. He hit it across at times, but was not able to land squarely with enough frequency to do great damage.

Following the program, Seneca C. Taylor, State Boxing Commissioner, announced that Kiser was indefinitely suspended by the National Boxing Association for his part in a free-for-all fight following a recent bout in Memphis.

The card, which was the second between Tommy Sullivan as matchmaker, drew about 2000 persons.

ST. CHARLES AND WELLSTON PLAY IN COUNTY TILT

With University City and St. Charles continuing their winning ways, a tie for the championship looks as probable in the County League. St. Charles added another victory to its long string last week by running over, around and through Ritenour High School to count eight touchdowns and roll up 51 points, the highest total compiled in the loop for a number of years. The Missouri River boys met Wellston Friday and should have little trouble in winning. Wellston has yet to register a win, having lost to Clayton in its only league tilt and to Principia and Webster in practice games.

University City High, co-leader in the race, will engage Mapleswood this week and is expected to win handily over the Blue and White, who were thumped by Chaminade last week.

"I didn't contract to fight a lightweight," he exclaimed, while clambering from the ring. Which, to some would indicate that Mr. Smith knew he fought a losing battle—though a good one.

Stillman Given Surprise.

A surprise almost equally as great resulted from the Stillman-Mallini bout. St. Louis fight spectators are in the habit of seeing Stillman win by a knockout early in the fight, and when Mallini's weight, at 156 pounds, was announced at five pounds under that of Stillman, some were unkind enough to hoot the ugly word "setup."

Mallini proved anything but a setup. He didn't hit Stillman in fact very infrequently—but he kept Stillman from landing squarely with that right that has spelled curtain for most of Stillman's opponents. Sometimes Mallini had to put on a double wrist lock to accomplish his purpose, and at other times he used holds not listed in the wrestling catalog. At that, Stillman got in some hard licks around Mallini's kidneys, especially in the late rounds. Mallini's greatest offensive weapon was a left which he thrust forward with a leaping lunge.

Two knockouts in the two heavyweight bouts gave the knock-em-down fans their innings. After an even first round and part of the second, John Schwake, making his first professional start, wound up and threw his right hand into the stomach of W. E. Radka of Bloomington, Ill., almost up to the elbow. It appeared. Walter went down, his mouth gapping like that of a fish out of water. He was through with the evening.

David Knost's knockout of Jack Humberto, of New Orleans, which came in the third round, was much more messy. Knost bloodied the visitor's nose early in the first round with a blow that likely broke that young man's proboscis. The matador was merely a question of time. Humberto went down for a nine count in the remainder of the first round, was down three times in the second, was knocked off the floor for an Official decisions are not permitted by the State boxing laws in Missouri. Herewith are the unofficial decisions of the Post-Dispatch reporter.

Ray Kiser, Tulsa, outpointed Steve Smith, Bridgeport, Conn., in 10 rounds. Weights—Kiser, 133; Smith, 131. Referee—Walker-Heisner.

Al Stillman, St. Louis, defeated Buster Mallini, New Orleans, in 10 rounds. Weights—Stillman, 161; Mallini, 156. Referee—Heisner.

Dave Knot, St. Louis, knocked out Jack Humberto, New Orleans, three rounds. Weights—Knot, 195; Humberto, 180. Referee—Harry Cook.

John Schwake, Webster Groves, kayoed Walter Radka, 158. Referee—Cook.

Pete White, St. Louis, and Johnny Franks, Mark Tree, fought a five-round draw. Weights—White, 129; Franks, 133. Referee—Cook.

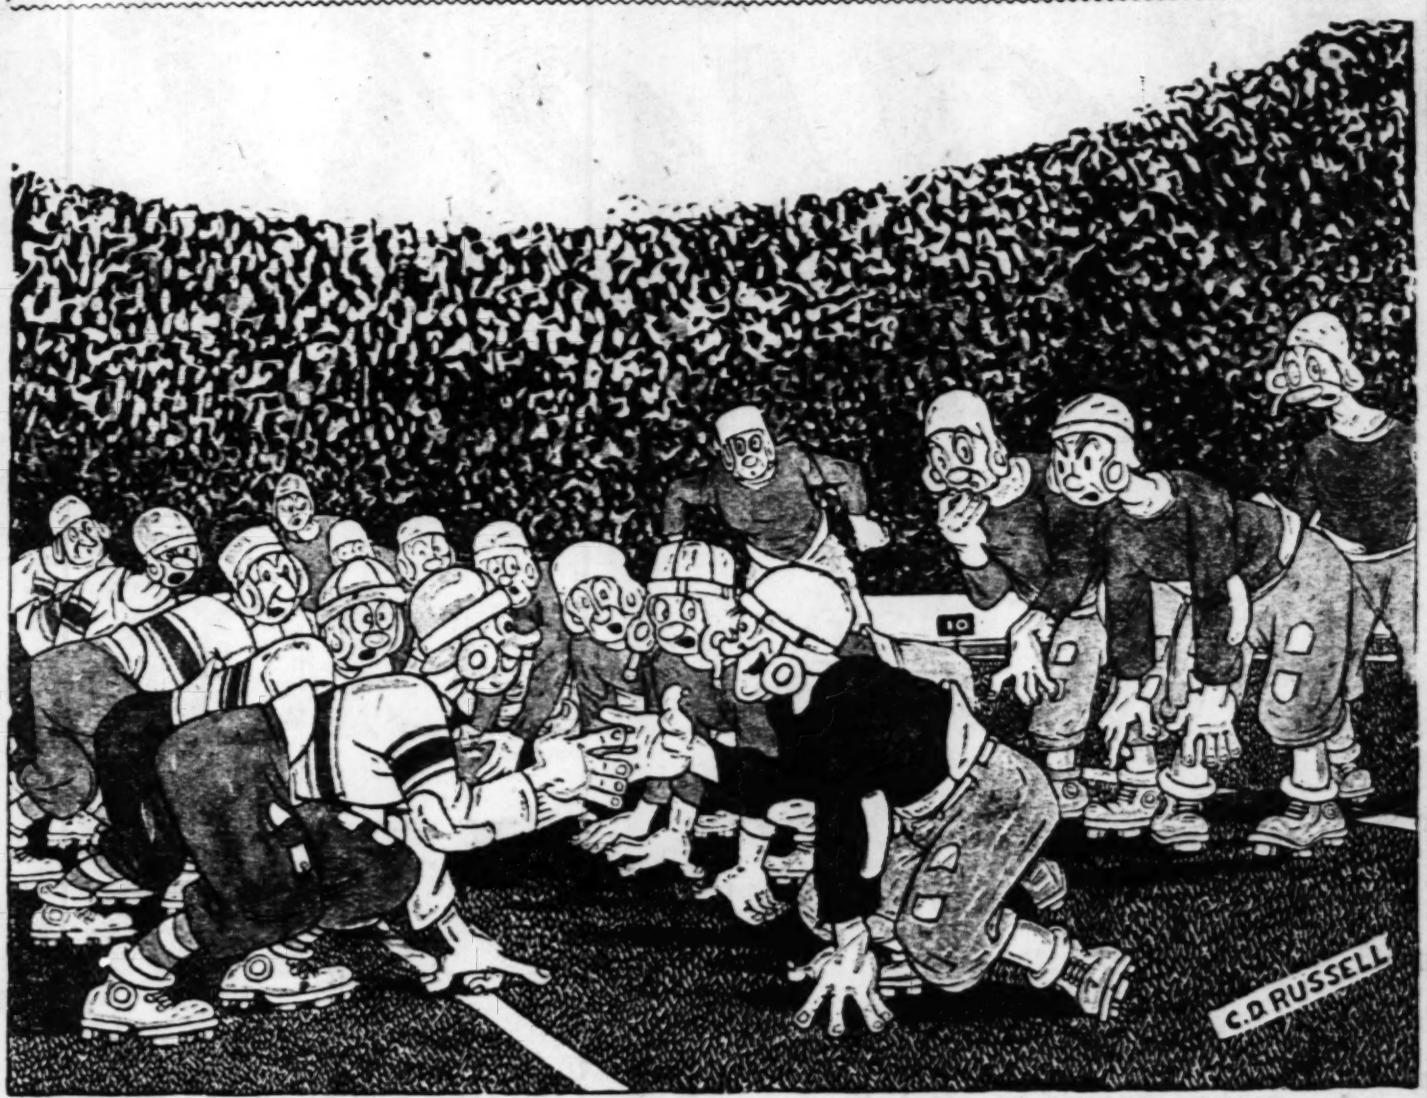

Each round saw Kiser stepping forward with long lefts and rights, with Smith fighting almost on his heels, with his gloves close to his body and his right half-cocked. Before going further, a few kind words may be said for Smith.

He was never far out of the running. Indeed, his right hand was one of the factors that made the fight interesting. He hit it across at times, but was not able to land squarely with enough frequency to do great damage.

Following the program, Seneca C. Taylor, State Boxing Commissioner, announced that Kiser was indefinitely suspended by the National Boxing Association for his part in a free-for-all fight following a recent bout in Memphis.

The card, which was the second between Tommy Sullivan as matchmaker, drew about 2000 persons.

KANSAS DENIES PAYING ACES OF FOOTBALL TEAM

By the Associated Press

LAWRENCE, Kan., Oct. 29.—Dr. F. C. "Phog" Allen, director of athletics at the University of Kansas, yesterday termed as "false and absurd" charges made in an article in a Des Moines newspaper, that Kansas football players, especially Jim Bausch, fullback, are paid for their athletic ability. Kansas University defeated Iowa State, 33 to 0, Saturday.

Allen said that Bausch had a contract with an insurance company with headquarters in Topeka to sell insurance at $75 a month. Bausch, as Dr. Allen understands it, receives the $75 a month just as any other student would borrow money to pay his school expenses. If he does not make enough in commissions to pay back the $75 a month, he must pay it back in cash.

Admitting the President of the insurance company was a K. U. graduate, Dr. Allen said Bausch was given his choice of attending Kansas, Oklahoma or Nebraska.

"Every member of the football squad with employment of any nature was passed upon last spring by the university administration," Dr. Allen said.

The article in the Des Moines paper said in part: "The well-paid members of K. U. lauged up their sleeves at the Carnegie Foundation report and trounced Iowa State's spottless amateurs."

"Figure it out for yourself," the article continues, "if Red Grange, after his college days, received $2000 a game and rarely scored a touchdown, how much were fullback Jim Bausch and the other backs worth? If he gets $125 a month, and it isn't likely he gets much more, that's only $31 a week over Ames' goal line. That's dirt cheap."

Dr. Allen said he had telephoned the sports editor of the Des Moines paper protesting the article as entirely without foundation.

LEYDECKER TO OPPOSE L. MEISEL IN FINAL OF NORTH SHORE TOURNEY

L. Meisel will oppose Dr. C. Leydecker in the final for the championship of the North Shore Country Club golf tournament. Meisel defeated J. Melzel, 4 and 3, in the semifinal round, and Dr. Leydecker advanced at the expense of R. H. Walke, 1 up.

In the Class A semifinals, M. Taylor won from Dr. V. Meinhardt, 4 and 2, and Fred Meyer trimmed J. W. Ratz, 1 up.

IOWA STAR DEFINITELY DECLARED ELIGIBLE

IOWA CITY, Oct. 29.—Welker Cochran, former world's 13.2 billiards champion, took the lead over Otto Reiselt, former three cushions titholder, in the first two blocks of their special 12-block three-cushion match here yesterday.

After Reiselt had won the afternoon block, 50 to 42 in 50 innings, Cochran took the night block, 50 to 48, in 55 innings. The total score stood: Cochran 100; Reiselt 98. Reiselt had a high run of seven to Cochran's six in the afternoon block. Cochran's high run last night was five; Reiselt's four.

EXTRA INNINGS by J. Roy Stockton

Les Bell Comes Back.

ESTER BELL, a great third baseman in 1926 and an outstanding club in 1927, will be back in the baseball championship spotlight next season. William Wrigley has purchased Lester from the Boston Braves as the first step in a campaign to bolster the Chicago National League team for the 1928 pennant race.

Bell's slump from the ranks of stars was one of the mysteries of the diamond. Bell broke into the Cardinal organization in 1922. He was purchased for a small sum and traded to Syracuse and then to Houston. In 1923 he batted .315 in 134 games in the Texas League and was recalled by the Cards. He played 15 games for the Red Birds in 1923 and 17 in 1924, spending the rest of the latter season at Milwaukee where he was an outstanding starting batter, .356.

Admitting the President of the insurance company was a K. U. graduate, Dr. Allen said Bausch was given his choice of attending Kansas, Oklahoma or Nebraska.

Ace Hudkins Gets Second Trial at Mickey Walker's Middleweight Title Tonight

By the Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 29.—On a canvas-covered battle ground at Wrigley Field, Mickey Walker, middleweight champion, tonight will defend the crown which is his by right of might against the savage ruses of his most persistent challenger—Ace Hudkins.

Raised in the ring school that teaches "no quarter asked and none given," these two gladiators are expected to settle a fistic dispute in 10 rounds or less, that will go down as one of the memorable bouts of the game.

One year ago they came together in an encounter which since has provoked much comment both for and against the decision. The Boston (N. J.) bulldog retained his title after 16 furious sessions but Hudkins always has claimed he was the victim of a poor decision.

25,000 Spectators to See Go.

Tonight the Nebraska Wildcat knocks at the title door once again. Some 25,000 persons, accounting for a gate of between $12,000 and $14,000 will be on hand to see whether he is to don the robes of a champion or remain in the ranks of those who have tried and failed.

Differing in their ring styles, each is, however, an old-fashioned "battler" in the final analysis. Walker is the better boxer and harder puncher. Hudkins, a mauling, flailing bruiser, boxes in steadily to the ultimate end of wearing down his opponents.

A month's training grind has put both champion and challenger in the peak of physical condition. There will be no alibi from either side on that score.

Walker a Favorite.

Those who check their opinions with money have made Walker a 10-3 favorite, although in some quarters they stack up even. It will be Walker's third defense of

HOW BOXERS COMPARE

By the Associated Press.

HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 29.

It has been officially decided that the loser's goal posts are legitimate spoils of foot war.

Harry Henegar, super-visioner of Dartmouth's athletes, offered to pay for the Harvard goal posts away by Dartmouth's rosters but that was the charge that they had been charged to profit and loss.

Losers' Goal Posts Called Legitimate Spoils of War

By the Associated Press.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 29.—St. Louis University's football team will have a tough eleven come back against Saturday's Saturday's game at Cedar Rapids.

In the final count of the two schools, the winner will always be Walker's "walk-off."

When Mickey was the low of the welterweights, Hudkins was trailing him around the stands. Walker moved into the middleweight ranks and Hudkins followed. In yesterday's heavy rain match, Walker's hard rain made work at the St. Louis Wildcat impossible, so Coach Anderson ran his charges through a signal drill at the University Gymnasium.

Normally scaling over the middleweight limit, Walker was down to 162 pounds yesterday. A "toughing up" day was expected to him to prepare him for his bout with the new champion.

Walker a Favorite.

Those who check their opinions with money have made Walker a 10-3 favorite, although in some quarters they stack up even. It will be Walker's third defense of the title since he won it from "Tiger" Flowers in 1926. In 1927 he knocked out Tommy Miller in London and last year edged out decision over Hobie.

Both of the two principals, each in their own right, are fighters.

Walker, the better boxer and harder puncher, is a "walk-off" fighter. Hudkins, a mauling, flailing bruiser, boxes in steadily to the ultimate end of wearing down his opponents.

title since he won it from "Flowers" in 1926. In 1927 he backed out Tommie Milligan in and last year edged out the season over Hudkins.

Careers of the two principals run parallel and the Wildcats have been Walker's shadow. When Mickey was the king of the welterweights, Hudkins was him around the country. Walker moved into the middleweight class, and Hudkins followed. Theiristic feed is one of my seasons.

Formerly scaling over the middle-weight limit, Walker was down to 162 pounds yesterday. A "dry-out" today was expected to bring him to the proper pounds. Hudkins is a legitimate middleweight and tips the beam well under the limit.

WA STATE MUST GET A NEW QUARTER BACK

The Associated Press.

JAMES, Ia., Oct. 29.—A quarterback to replace Wilcox, who suffered a broken nose against Kansas and a halfback to fit Paul Haug's shoes are Coach Workman's problem at Iowa State. Haug may not be able to play again this season. Nagle, an end, may be transferred to the backfield.

Toledo made 203 double plays. Toledo made 102 double plays in season in the American Association.

PROBABLY THE best coach in the country is in charge of the team, which has been in existence since 1914. Haug is a veteran team. Frisbee, the triple threat man, is the big offensive cog of the team. He handles the kicking and his 180 pounds serve to make him an ideal plunger back. Another outstanding star is Captain Barrows, a 180-pounder, and Hines, a halfback, who tips the scales at 137. Johnstone's throws some of the passes, but excels in returning punts from the safety position.

Allen is the 190-pound Coe center. He is a great passer and a tower of strength on the defense. He and Burgert are the regulars and are the smallest men on the line. Weis and Madden, each weighing 190 pounds, are the tackles, and according to Coach Weis, Weis is the best tackle Coe has had in 15 years he has been coaching at the Cedar Rapids school. Two 170-pounders, Ford and Ludy, play the ends. Ford is one of the outstanding players on the team, being an accurate tackler and a great pass receiver.

LOCAL STOCKS OFF SHARPLY; SALES HEAVY

Fifteen Issues Go to New Lows—15,629-Share Day Is Second Largest on Record.

ST. LOUIS STOCK EXCHANGE, Oct. 29.—The wave of selling in all large securities markets was reflected on the local stock exchange today which had its second largest day on record. Sales of 15,629 shares, compared with 5918 yesterday, and the record total of 17,922.

Declines were sharp and 15 issues sold at new low prices.

A block of 1000 shares of International Shoe common was sold in one lot at $5.75.

New Low Prices Reached.

New lows were reached as follows: Consolidated Lead, $8; Ely & Walker, $2.88; Hamilton-Brown, $9; Huttig common, $5.50; International Shoe preferred, $102; Laclede Gas preferred, $95; Laclede Steel, $10; Missouri Portland Cement, $22; Pickrel Walnut, $15; Rico-Six, $15.60; Skouras Brothers, $16; Beer & Fuller, $26; Southwestern Bell preferred, $113; Wagner Electric, $25.

Wagner Electric common, in which there was a turnover of 5730 shares, closed $4 off at $22. Wagner preferred was $3.50 off at the close.

Some Other Losses.

Some other losses were as follows at the close: Brown Shoe, $25.50; C. G. V. W., $4.75; Curtis Electric, $5; International Shoe common, $9; Laclede Gas preferred, $15; Landis Machine, $5; Laclede Steel, $10; Missouri Portland Cement, $22; Pickrel Walnut, $15; Rico-Six, $15.60; Skouras Brothers, $15.

Bank stocks suffered. St. Louis Union Trust sold at a decline of $25; Mercantile Commerce was off $25; and Boatmen's Bank was down $30.

Local Business and Financial Items

(Paragraphs for publication in this column should be addressed to the Financials Editor.)

Walter C. Hecker has been elected president of the Curtis Manufacturing Co., succeeding Edwin H. Steedman, who resigned recently. Hecker was vice president in charge of sales of the company. The change was made, it was said, because Steedman's other interests did not permit him to devote full time to the company's business. He remains as a director.

The Curtis company, incorporated for $1,000,000, manufactures pneumatic machinery. Its factory and general offices are at 1905 Kienlen avenue.

HOUSE FURNISHING COMPANY

CLEANING FIRM CUTS PRICE TO 50 CENTS

Tabler Company Announces
New Temporary Rates in General Reduction.

A record low price of 50 cents for cleaning, pressing and delivering men's suits and overcoats was announced today by the Tabler Cleaning Co., 2515 North Grand boulevard. Previous prices of the Tabler company for the same work were $1.25 and $1.50.

Yesterday the Lungstras Co., the largest cleaning concern here, announced a reduction from $1.50 to $1 for cleaning and pressing men's suits and overcoats and plain silk and wool dresses. Robert Lungstras, head of the firm, stated the reduction was to meet competition from concerns in adjacent towns doing a mail order business and from chain store cleaning establishments. A number of other concerns, both union and open shop establishments, also announced reductions. The Superior Cleaning & Dyeing Co., a union concern, advertised an 85-cent cleaning price for suits and overcoats, the management explaining that it hoped to make a profit through volume.

Harry Tabler, president of the Tabler company, said the 50-cent price was to be temporary and was set to attract customers to the newly established "popular prices." Tabler declared he is prepared to inaugurate a schedule of graduated cleaning prices here, with the value of the garment presented for cleaning being considered.

"Under the old system the man with the $20 suit paid as much as the fellow with the $100 suit," Tabler said. "I have never considered that fair and will shortly be prepared to give the public a standard grade of cleaning at $1 and a higher grade of work for more expensive garments at a higher price. It is my opinion that the woman with the $75 dress doesn't want a $1.50 cleaning job."

Preparatory to placing his plan into operation Tabler has started the Dollar Cleaning Co., 2800 Olive street, where the less costly cleaning will be done. The Tabler company will conduct the more expensive business. Tabler said he is not ready to announce the start of the new system. The 50-cent price he characterized merely as a "business getter," established temporarily "to wake the folks up." He disclaimed any intention of starting a price war.

THE REV. EDMUND DUCKWORTH RESIGNS FOR THIRD TIME

Pastor of Episcopal Church of the Redeemer Is Ill in St. Luke's Hospital.

The Rev. Dr. Edmund Duckworth has presented his resignation, for the third time, to the vestry of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, Washington boulevard and Euclid Avenue. He is now in St. Luke's Hospital. Because of his infirmities he has delivered his sermons while seated in a chair for more than a year past. The vestry and congregation have refused to consider severance of the pastoral relation.

Among the pastors of the larger St. Louis churches, Dr. Duckworth has the record of longest service in one charge. He became rector of St. James Church, Goode and Cote Brilliante avenues, in 1895. When St. James was merged with the Redeemer, parish St. James' building was removed, stone by stone, to the Washington-Euclid site, and the rector went with the church.

NEW YORK CENTRAL WOULD BUY HALF OF THREE RODS

Asks I. C. C. for Right to Acquire Interest in West Virginia Lines Controlled by C. & O.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Permission was asked of the Interstate Commerce Commission today by the New York Central Railroad to acquire a half-interest in three West Virginia railroads now controlled by the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway.

The roads are the Sewell Valley, the Loop & Lookout and the Greenbrier & Eastern. The deal would be made through purchase of one-half of the capital stock of the companies.

Authorization also was asked by the New York Central to guarantee one-half of the principal and interest of $300,000 first mortgage 5 per cent bonds of the Sewell Valley.

MERGER OF FOOD CONCERN

Hershey Chocolate, Kraft-Phenix Cheese and Soap Concern to Unite. Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Formation of another huge merger of food companies was virtually completed yesterday. The C. & O. C. & H. with the financial backing of the National City Co. agreed to combine Kraft-Phenix Cheese, Hershey Chocolate and Colgate-Palmolive-Peet, a soapmaking concern, in a single holding company. International Products Corporation will be the name of the new holding company and it will have total resources of more than $150,000,000.

Charles S. Pearce, president of Colgate-Palmolive-Peet, will be president of the new company. J. Frank, chairman of the Kraft-Phenix Cheese Corporation, will be a director.

Shares of the new corporation will be offered in exchange for the present common stock of the companies. It is the plan of the founders to retire all preferred stock and the funded debt of the component companies.

ROBBED BY MAN HE GAVE RIDE

Malden (Mo.) Youth Attacked by Stranger, Car Taken.

MALDEN, Mo., Oct. 29.—Morris McCarver, 17 years old, son of Murry McCarver, a farmer residing east of Malden, was slugged #### and robbed of his automobile Friday evening by a stranger whom he was giving a ride.

At an isolated spot outside of the town the stranger struck McCarver and threw him out of the machine, leaving him unconscious in a ditch.

CZECH COALITION IS DEFEATED

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 29.—The present coalition government, having obtained only 144 out of a possibly 300 seats in the new Chamber of Deputies, it appeared probably today that another governmental coalition would have to be made.

From the fact that the Socialists increased their vote by 50 percent it is thought they will be asked to participate in any new coalition.

THE BISHOP MURDER CASE

A PHILO VANCE DETECTIVE STORY
BY S. S. VAN DINE

CHAPTER 26.

"THE law," returned Markham with asperity, "can hardly be expected to throw out cases because they're too convincing."

"On the other hand," pursued Vance, "despite the comment, 'it is quite unlikely' knows something that NEF a direct and vital bearing on the case; and my humble suggestion is that we attempt to prise the information out of him. Spelling's testimony has given us the lever for the purpose. . . . I say, Mr. Arnesson, what's your opinion?"

"Haven't any," the man answered. "I'm disinterested onlooker. I'd hate, however, to see poor Adolph in dungeon vile."

Though he would not commit himself, he plain that he agreed with Vance.

Heath thought, characteristically, that immediate action was advisable, and expressed himself to that effect.

"If he's got anything to tell he'll tell it quick enough after he's locked up."

"It's a difficult situation," Inspector Moran demurred, in a soft judicial voice. "We can't afford to make an error. If Drukker's evidence is strong enough someone else, we'd be a laughing-stock if we had arrested the wrong man."

Vance looked toward Markham and nodded agreement.

"Why not have him on the tapis first, and see if he can't be persuaded to unbend his soul. You might dangle a warrant over his head, don't you know, as a kind of moral inducement. Then, if he remains coy and reticent, bring out the gavel and have the doughty Sergeant escort him to the bastille. Markham sat tapping indefinitely on the desk, his head enveloped in smoke as he puffed nervously on his cigar. At last he set his chin firmly and turned to Heath.

"Bring Drukker here at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. You'd better have a wagon and a John Doe warrant in case he offers any objection." His face was grim and determined. "Then I'll find out what he knows—and act accordingly."

The conference broke up immediately. It was after 5 o'clock, and Markham and Vance and I rode upstairs together to the Stuyvesant Club. We dropped Arnesson at the subway, and he took leave of us with scarcely a word. His garrulous cynicism seemed entirely to have deserted him. After dinner Markham pleaded fatigue, and Vance and I went to the Metropolitan and heard Geraldine Farrar in "Louis."

THE next morning broke dark and cold. Currie called us at half past seven, for Vance intended to be present at the interview with Drukker; and at 8 o'clock we had breakfast in the library before a light fire. We were held up in the traffic on our way downtown, and though it was quarter after nine when we reached the District Attorney's office, Drukker and Heath had not yet arrived.

Vance settled himself comfortably in a large leather-upholstered chair opposite a cigarette.

"I feel rather bucked this morning," he remarked. "If Drukker tells his story, and if the tale is what I think it is, we'll know the combination to the lock."

His words had scarcely been uttered when Heath burst into the office and, facing Markham without a word of greeting, lifted both arms and let them fall in a gesture of hopeless recognition.

"Well, sir, we ain't going to question Drukker this morning—or no other time," he blurted. "He tells off that high wall in Riverside Park right near his house last night, and broke his neck. Wasn't found till 7 o'clock this morning. His body's down at the morgue now. . . . Fine break we get!" He sank disgustedly into a chair.

Markham stared at him unbelievingly.

"You're sure?" he asked, with startled futility.

"I was up there before they removed the body. One of the local men phoned me about it just as I was leaving the office. I stuck around and got all the dope I could."

"What did you learn?" Markham was first against an overwhelming sense of discouragement.

"There wasn't much to find out. Some kids in the park found the body about 7 o'clock this morning—lots of kids around, it being Saturday; and the local men hopped over and called a police surgeon. The doc said Drukker musta fallen off the wall about 10 o'clock last night—killed instantly. The wall at that spot is concrete. Seventy-sixth street—is all of six feet above the playground. The top of the wall along the bridle path; and it's a wonder more people haven't broke their necks there. Kids are all the time walking along the stone ledge."

"Has Mrs. Drukker been notified?"

"I told 'em I'd attend to it. But I thought I'd come here first and see what you wanted done about it."

Markham leaned back dejectedly.

"I don't see that there's much of anything we can do."

"It might be well," suggested Vance, "to inform Arnesson. He'll probably be the one who'll have to look after things. . . . My word, Markham! I'm beginning to think that this case is a nightmare, after all. Death was our principal hope, and at the very moment when there's a chance of our forcing him to speak, the tumbles off of a wall—" Abruptly he stopped. "Off of a wall . . . ." As he repeated these words he leapt to his feet. "A hunchback fails off of a wall . . . . A hunchback! . . ."

We stared at him as if he had gone out of his mind; and I admit that the look on his face sent a chill over me. His eyes were fixed, like those of a man gazing at a malignant ghost. Slowly he turned to Markham, and said in a voice that hardly recognized:

"There's another mad masochist—another Mother Goose rhyme. . . . Humpy Dumpty this time!"

The astonished silence that followed was broken by a strained harsh laugh from the sergeant.

"That's stretching things, ain't it, Mr. Vance?"

"It's preposterous!" declared Markham, studying Vance with genuine concern. "My dear fellow, you've let this case prey on your mind too much. Nothing has happened except that a man with a hump has fallen from the coping of a wall in the park. It's unfortunate, I know, and it's doubly unfortunate, I suppose, that this once noble brain . . . . I give up! The third act in this terrible tragedy is played almost before your eyes, and you serenely ignore it."

"Oh, quite—quite." Vance sighed and smiled weakly. "The sea air would do me worlds of good, and all that. Bring me back to normal, what?—build up the wreck of this once noble brain. . . . I give up! The third act in this terrible tragedy is played almost before your eyes, and you serenely ignore it."

"Your imagination has got the better of you," Markham returned, with a twinkle of deep affection. "Don't worry about it any more. Have dinner with me to-night. We'll talk it over then."

At this moment Drukker looked in and spoke to the Sergeant.

"Quinan of the World is here. Wants to see you."

Markham swung about.

"Hold my God! . . . Bring him in here!"

Quinan entered, waved up a cheery salutation, and handed the Sergeant a letter.

"It's morning," he said, "and I got for being so brightened."

Heath opened the letter as the rest of us looked on. At once I recognized the paper and the faint blue characters of the elite type. The note read:

Humpy Dumpty sat on a wall; Humpy Dumpty had a great fall; All the king's horses and all the king's men Cannot put Humpy Dumpty together again.

Then came that ominous signature, in capitals: THE BISHOP.

When Heath had got rid of Quinan with promises such as would bring gladness to any reporter's heart, there were several minutes of tense silence in the office. "The Bishop" had been at his grisly work again; and he had now become a terrible triple-affair, with the solution apparently further off than ever.

It was not, however, the insolubility of these incredible crimes that primarily affected us; rather was it the inherent horror that emanated, like a malaise, from the acts themselves.

Vance, who was pacing somberly up and down, gave voice to his trouble in emotion.

"It's despicable," Markham—it's the essence of utterable evil. Those children in the park—up early on their holiday in search of dreams—busy with their play and make-believe . . . and then the silencing reality—the awful, overpowering disillusion . . . Don't you see the wickedness of it? Those children found Humpy Dumpty—their Humpy Dumpty, with whom they had played—lying dead at the foot of the famous wall—a Humpy Dumpty. Wasn't it a delightfully entree for the season's dinners.

Pickled Cauliflower.

One gallon of vinegar, one-half ounce red chilles, one-quarter ounce pepper, one-quarter ounce mustard seed, one-quarter ounce peppercorns, one-quarter ounce whole grain salt, one-half ounce of spices tied in muslin and boil for 10 minutes. Then remove bag of spices. Break the cauliflower into small sprays, wash in salted water and spread on a large dish, sprinkling a little salt on them. Leave for 24 hours, then drain and place in jars. Fill these with the prepared vinegar, place the spice bag on top and tie down with parchment paper. A delightful entree for the season's dinners.

Quartered hard-boiled eggs make a most attractive garnish for salad.

Curtain Time.

If you are planning to buy new draperies this fall, remember this little tip: If the material is of chintz, cretonne or any light material, hang it in a dark room before making your selection. Then you will see how it will look when at your windows with the light shining behind it. If the material is thin, the light is apt to spoil your pattern during the daytime. Some of the new chintzes have the pa-

Behind the Screens

The Latest News and Gossip of the Film Actors in Hollywood Appears in the Daily Magazine of the Post-Dispatch Every Tuesday and Thursday and in the Sunday Drama Section.

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 29.—
FEW of the types seen haunting casting offices day after day:

Pretty girls, beautiful girls, and plain girls ugly girls... Wrecks of one and fame... fat and wasted-out actresses who once had "followers" in their palmy days on the stage... before youth and beauty fled.

Pathetic old vagabonds of the small-time circuit, come to California's modern El Dorado in hopes of living through movie "bits"...

More pretty girls...

NILS ASTHER dressed young extra men inquiring supply. "Anything up?"... Shapely dancing girls, graceful in carriage... Mexicans, swarthy, bright-eyed.

Maidly beauties of the '90's slim and assured and self-assured, sweeping in grandly and with fine air... to ask for work in great tens... Cowboys, sporting red neckerchiefs, 10-gallon hats, furry chaps... some of them idly whittling to kill time... Pretty girls...

BARDING men, shabbily dressed, puny, old, watery-eyed... And robust men with beards, all sort of beards... Cripples patiently waiting, on the mere chance of a call... Men with dogs, cats... Dauntless ambitious mothers with golden-haired children... Hungry-looking youth, jesting, bragging, telling each other of the "good" bits they have given in bygone pictures...

The uninitiated listener might surmise the bits were stellar roles... Pretty girls... and pretty girls.

ELS ASTHER, Swedish actor, probably will make a talkie some day, but he certainly does not like the talkie's cousin, radio. An expensive instrument he purchased has seldom been "tuned in," and now he has found a use for it. He has traded it in on a horse which he stables at his favorite riding range.

TWO long thwarted movie aspirations are about to be realized in Hollywood.

There is quite a difference in the ages of Joseph Allen, New York stage actor, Fred Asterson, formerly a studio messenger and then a cameraman, and they are at different studios, but they have this in common—after years of waiting, they are seeing themselves on the screen about the same time.

Allen's movie debut was postponed by the armistice. He had played the role of the German Kaiser in a war picture, his first screen part, and he anticipated with interest the movie's first screening. But in vain, for the coming of peace prevented its release because the picture was war propaganda.

The actor stayed on the stage, playing in George M. Cohen productions, and in musicals, until recently he was drafted for talkies. Today he is in Hollywood, ready to take a featured role in the new Richard Dix starring picture. So at last he will not only see, but hear, himself in a motion picture.

ANDERSON, the former messenger, has nursed movie ambitions ever since, as a boy, he sat at his radio, informed deaf and watched the stars pass through their sets. He used to steal time away whenever possible to watch them act, and dream of the day when he could join their ranks.

But he never had his chance, and turned to photographing movies instead, for several years. Then one day he gave it up and undertook to make his dreams come true. He became an actor, and his first real opportunity came recently when he was cast for the new Buddy Rogers talkie.

SUDIO officials some day may learn the danger of over-hallying their pictures. A production which broke world records for box-office receipts in the East did its Los Angeles opening recently, and on the strength of its record run in New York the publicity department had laid it on thick and heavy in the advertisements.

That, coupled with the fact its success had been widely discussed in the newspapers and trade journals, probably caused most of those who attended the local premiere to be severely disappointed. While most would admit it was a good picture, many said they had expected a truly great talkie—and the movie was not that.

Or maybe Los Angeles simply is jealous of New York for having had the "world premier." It's not unlikely, for the natives do get a large wallop out of "world premieres" and such.

EIGHTEEN years of telling others how to act was enough for Oscar Apfel, so he decided to let others tell him how to do it. That is the reason one of the motion picture screen's first directors has turned actor.

Since he started directing at the Edison studio in the Bronx, New York, in 1911, Apfel has told the best of them how to act. The great and near great of pictures have passed in parade before his megaphone. From grand opera and the novels of Charles Dickens in one and two reels, he has directed western and crook drama in six and eight reels.

"I finally decided I was entitled to rest and get some fun out of this motion picture game so here I am as an actor," Apfel declared on the set at the studios where he is playing a character role in "Half Way to Heaven," an all-talking picture starring Charles "Buddy" Rogers.

On the day when Apfel started telling others how to act, the film director was in the same class as the sea captain who was mate, cook and crew, too. Instead of a nice white script of a complete screen play ready for shooting, he was handed anything from an idea to a three-page synopsis of a grand opera and told to "make it."

He planned his own scenario, picked his cast, helped build his sets and went to work. If the picture were a two-reel superfeature it perhaps required as much as a three days shooting schedule. One reels were turned out complete after a good day's snappy shooting. In his pioneer days, Apfel made several of Charles Dickens' novels into pictures. Only a few went to two reels.

"In the very early era of picture casting was a great problem," says Apfel. "The leading parts were filled by regular players, most of them stage actors and actresses who worked with secret dread that their shame in stooping to pictures might be discovered. The atmosphere and bit players were recruited anywhere and everywhere. Sometimes neighboring barber shops were invaded and more than one individual broke into pictures from a curb side stance on the street."

Apfel is one of the pioneers of Hollywood. He came to the West Coast in 1913 to join the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company. He worked with Lasky a year and a half and then directed for Fox. Returning East, he directed for the World Film Company at Fort Lee, N. J.

He went to Holland and made a picture for a Dutch company. He was in Europe a little over a year and then returned to directing in Hollywood as a free lance.

"ONLY a veteran such as myself can really appreciate the vast growth of the motion picture industry," says Apfel.

"In the old days I had one cameraman. If I was lucky, I had a boss carpenter to help plan and build the sets. Sometimes I had one property man and few properties. Often there was no property man and still fewer properties. An assistant director was undreamed of. A whole motion picture company, exclusive of actors, would only number five or six people."

"It is nothing uncommon now to see as many as 100 workers and technicians with a company. Take this 'Half Way to Heaven' unit. There are six men in the camera crew. Director George Abbott has two assistants. There are property men who can get any conceivable sort of property from a huge, tremendously stocked department. There are grips and electricians, sound technicians and script clerks.

"None of these workers is unnecessary. All are, however, daily reminders to an old-timer like myself of the tremendous growth the industry has made."

WALL STREET STOCKS RISE $10 TO $36 ON HEAVY BUYING BY FINANCIERS

John D. Rockefeller Announces He and Son Are Purchasing and Will Continue To.

BANKERS BELIEVE HYSTERIA IS PASSED and American Extra Dividends But Confidence—Sales Exceed 10,500,000 Shares

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Power buying support, supplied by some of the country's largest financial institutions and wealthiest individuals, including John D. Rockefeller Sr. and his son, turned the course of stock prices definitely today after a week of disastrous selling by panic-stricken investors and speculators throughout the world had washed away more than $25,000,000,000 in quoted values.

Shares of issues closed $10 higher. Trading continued in a grueling pace, total sales exceeding 10,727,300 shares, exceeded only by yesterday's and Thursday's turnover.

Average Price, 10 Points.
The average closing price of industrial stocks rose 10 points, railroad stocks increased 5.4 points and utility stocks rose 2 points.

Call money held at 6 per cent day, despite withdrawals to meet month-end requirements, and money was nominally quoted a per cent for all maturities for first time in more than a year.

Foreign exchanges eased, reflecting a return flow of funds to New York as the renewing money market in the stocks improved. The Canadian dollar dropped to discount of 2 cents and sterling was sagged to $4.87 15-16.

Commodities generally rallied with stocks. Wheat up 3¢ and more, helped by liberal buying, and corn mounted ½ cent.

Leading New York bank meeting in informal conference the offices of J. P. Morgan & Co. reported that the situation was unchanged.

Announcement that governors of the New York Stock Exchange decided to delay the opening of the Exchange tomorrow from 9 a.m. to noon, and to suspend business on Friday and Saturday, come not as a surprise.

Rockefeller Statement. A statement, issued from the home at Pocantico Hills, N. Y., was one of the infrequent comments that he made on business conditions recent years. It read:

Believing that fundamental conditions of the country sound and that there is no warrant the destruction of values in the business situation that has taken place on the changes during the past week my son and I have for days been purchasing some common stocks. We are tending and will continue to do so in substantial amounts at levels which we believe represent sound investment value. A brief flurry of selling place in some issues on the announcement that the exchange would be closed Friday and Saturday, and only open three days, but offerings quickly absorbed, and rebounded upward in impressive fashion in the last hour of trading. Some of the buying was directed to Rockefellers' account.

Buying orders poured into market in huge volume during last hour of trading, and their best price of the day was half-hour of trading.

How Leading Issues Close. Final prices on 50 leading together with the net change registered with Tuesday's closing quotations, are given below:

American Can, $131, up $2.

American & Foreign Power, up $19.

American Smelting, $84.75 cents.

American Telephone & Telegraph, $240, up $6.

Anaconda, $56, up $10.

Andes Copper, $41, up $6.

Atlantic Refining, $41.50.

Baltimore & Ohio, $124.

Barnsdall "A," $21.87, up $10.

Bethlehem Steel, $94.50.
